DREAMS and Trials

The sum total of your life is shaped by the choices you make. You may think that isn't true. Joseph from the Bible certainly had things happen to him that weren't a direct result of his choices. But you have a choice whether to become bitter or better, to be afraid or to overcome - just like Joseph.

We can learn from our own problems and through the things that come our way, but we don't have to. As a matter of fact, there is a better way to learn: We can learn from other people's examples. The lives of those recorded in the Bible were written for our example so that we could profit and learn from them (1 Cor. 10:6).

Joseph was seventeen years old when God gave him a dream for his life and began the process of showing him how he was going to be used. Yet for the next thirteen years, everything that happened to him was contrary to what God had told him. Joseph was thirty years old when he finally stood before Pharaoh (Gen. 41:46). Then it was nine years after he was promoted to be the ruler over all of Egypt that his brethren came, and he saw his dreams actually come to pass. I can relate to this process.

Back when the Lord first touched my life on March 23, 1968, I was eighteen years old. Yet for a number of years, everything in my life looked like it was not going well. I had a lot of negative things happen. I was speaking forth my faith and saying that God had called me to minister and that I was going to have a worldwide ministry, but everything in my life looked contrary to that. I'm telling you, Joseph's story was one of the things that God used to keep me focused. Everybody else was telling me my vision was foolish, that I needed to quit and go do something else.

There were times that I felt that way myself. Yet I'd go to the Word and see God use people like Joseph miraculously. These are the things that have changed me, and I believe that this has the potential of changing you.

Has God given you a dream? It could be about healing. Maybe it's about prosperity. Or it might be about your marriage or relationships. You feel you've got promises from God, yet your circumstances don't seem to line up. Take a lesson from Joseph.

This month, we are offering Lessons from Joseph available as a CD or As-Seen-on-TV DVD series for a suggested donation of £16 for either one. How to Find, Follow, and Fulfill God's Will is an excellent companion to this teaching as you're discovering God's dreams for your life. This book is offered for a suggested donation of £10. To order, go to www.awme.net, call our Helpline: +44 (0)1922 473 300, or complete and return the enclosed order form. If you will receive these things I share about Joseph, this could change your life. It sure changed mine.

We love you,

Andrew and Jamie

Worth the Price of Endurance

But the Lord was with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

GENESIS 39:21

To the natural mind, everything in Joseph's life looked like it was going wrong. But the Lord was with him. Most people would think the Lord had forsaken him, if they looked on his circumstances. But God was with him.

Could you have endured the hatred and ultimate rejection of your brothers as Joseph did and have remained faithful in slavery and temptation? The vast majority would have given up. What had Joseph's integrity gotten him? He was in prison. He could have still been the ruler of Potiphar's house and have had the master's wife as his mistress. Wouldn't that have been better than what he had? Definitely not! No physical advantage is worth more than your soul. Joseph still had the Lord with him, giving him inner peace and hope that his vision would yet come to pass. Nothing is worth giving up your relationship with the Lord and the dreams that produces.

Psalms 105:19 says, "Until the time that his word came: the word of the Lord tried him." This reveals Joseph was holding on to the vision the Lord had given him through the two dreams of Genesis 37:6-11. Joseph had a belief that he would rule and see his brothers and father bow down to him, regardless of what his physical circumstances were telling him. In due season, we reap if we don't faint (Gal. 6:9).

Thinking about signing up to Charis in September 2016?

There's a Charis near you!

Charis Bible College is all about people! Focused on educating the body of Christ about who God is and who He is in His saints. Charis Bible College is equipping the saints for the work of the ministry, training disciples to go out and share the Gospel with the rest of the world in the way God has uniquely called each individual to do it.

"CHARIS"

Not sure how to say it?
You are not the only one!
Charis is the Greek word for grace and is pronounced
Care-is NOT Chair-is!

Every believer is called to be a minister of Christ; some are called to pastor, some to evangelize, some to prophesy, but we are all, as believers, called to go forth and make disciples! We at Charis believe effective ministry can only happen when we understand who God is and what our relationship is with Him. Once we understand the grace and love of God and our identity in Him, we can make an effortless impact in our world!

Change your life,
change the world!
