FAITH Builders

Have you ever wondered why God doesn't give you an emotional touch to deliver you from unbelief? It's because He loves you so much that He's trying to get you to operate in something greater: faith! You might say, "Oh no, another message on faith." If you respond that way, then you don't have a good revelation on faith. You're the one who needs what I'm going to be sharing. Faith is the key to everything in the Christian life. It is the victory that overcomes the world (1 John 5:4).

What the Lord has shown me about faith are some of the most important lessons I've ever learned. I haven't arrived, but I've left. I've seen faith accomplish things in my life that couldn't have been accomplished any other way.

Faith is what works. It is not your natural talents or ability. It's not your great wisdom. You don't need an emotional experience with God. You just need to trust Him. That's how you receive from Him.

So, the obvious question is, "How does faith work?" That's probably one of the most asked questions in all of Christianity. Most people would answer, "Faith works by love; Galatians 5:6 says so." They would be right. But while I emphasize the grace and unconditional love of God on a regular basis, that's only the motivation for faith. In order for faith to be effectual, you have to acknowledge every good thing in you in Christ Jesus (Philem. 6). How do you know what's in you? By the Word of God!

Many of us have Bibles lying around gathering dust. Some of us even carry one. But when we're struggling with unbelief, we don't want a scripture. We want something tangible, something emotional. We would rather have Jesus put His arm around us and say something about how everything will be all right. That would make us feel better. But overcoming doubt isn't just about feeling better; it's about getting back into the Word, which is where faith comes from (Rom. 10:17).

The only sure way to operate in the God-kind of faith is to take Him at His Word. Don't allow your five senses to dominate your thinking. You've got to come to a place where Scripture is more real to you than anything you can see, taste, hear, smell, or feel. This won't happen accidentally. It's something you're going to have to pursue.

Faith is counterintuitive. It is contrary to the way the world does things. This world's system doesn't operate in trust and reliance upon God. It fights against everything He designed. It's gotten to where people who believe God and say what the Bible says are made fun of. Fear of ridicule makes for some very weak and confused Christians.

FAITH Builders

Open your eyes to more

You know, I just saw a survey by the Barna Group that said the vast majority of Americans consider the United States to be a Christian nation with a biblical worldview. But when they were asked specific questions about their beliefs, they discovered that only 7 percent of the American Christian population viewed things according to Scripture.¹ That's pitiful! Many of these same people probably wonder why their faith doesn't work. They need to get back to believing what the Bible says.

When God's Word becomes first place in your life, there isn't a problem you're facing that can't be solved by faith. Faith is the victory that overcomes the world. There is no weapon formed against you that can prosper (Is. 54:17) when you are believing God. You plus God makes a majority.

If you are born again, you have probably struggled with faith at one point or another. Like most Christians, it has been hit-and-miss for you. You need to understand the laws that govern faith, and that's what my Faith Builders series is all about. When I first taught on this, many who had been in the "faith walk" for years told me that these teachings were the most life-changing messages they had ever heard. Praise the Lord! We are all still learning about faith.

Our Faith Builders Package will help you to build upon the foundation that I've laid in this letter. I guarantee you, once you get into walking by faith (2 Cor. 5:7), you'll see the victory that overcomes the world. I want to encourage you to take advantage of this month's offer, which includes the Faith Builders teaching in both CD and DVD format, along with additional teachings. You can order the entire package from our website: www.awme.net, call our Helpline: +44 (0)1922 473 300, or complete the order form and mail it in the envelope provided.

You will be blessed!

TACKLING the Financial Mountain:

Teachings by Paul Milligan

Like Andrew Wommack, Paul Milligan is a transplant to Colorado from Texas. Although they didn't meet until adulthood, the two men grew up only a few miles from one another. Both eventually relocated to Colorado as the Lord called them and have since known each other for years.

Paul joined Andrew Wommack Ministries' board of directors in 2003 and has been a steady voice of wisdom for Andrew ever since. However, in 2014, Andrew asked Paul to step into the role of chief executive officer. His years of experience as the founder and head of over a dozen corporations, along with heading up his own worldwide teaching ministry, certainly qualified Paul for the position. Paul's acceptance of the CEO position was at a time of significant change at AWM, so Andrew was looking for someone qualified not only in the natural but also in the spiritual.

Paul Milligan absolutely fits the bill.

Since 2004, Paul's focus has been on ministering to the body of Christ in the areas of business and personal financial stewardship. And now, AWM is making Paul's wealth of wisdom available to you. Paul's numerous teaching products - workbooks, audio and video teachings, and his own Making Cents money-management software - are items that will help you grow in business and in your personal financial life. A sampling of his products can be seen in this newsletter. The full line of Paul's products can be viewed and ordered online.

LIVING Devotional Speak!

For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

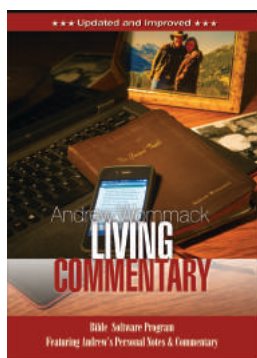

Mark 11:23

Anyone who uses faith the way Jesus did can get the same results. Three times in this verse, Jesus stressed speaking. This is a vital part of faith. We can't just think faith. It needs to be spoken (Prov. 18:20-21).

It's also important to whom or what we are speaking. This verse says we are to speak to the mountain. The mountain symbolizes our problem or the thing we want removed. Most people speak to God about their problems; this verse is saying we need to speak to our problems about God. This involves the believers taking their authority and commanding the problem to be removed (Is. 45:11). The Lord didn't say, "Pray for the sick." He said, "Heal the sick" (Matt. 10:8 and Luke 9:2). There is a huge difference between the two.

A common prayer today for healing would be something like "Father, I thank You that by the stripes of Jesus, I have been healed. I'm claiming my healing in the name of Jesus." All those statements are good and true, but that's not what Jesus was instructing us to do. We should speak directly to the problem and, using our authority in Jesus, command the problem to be removed.

Notice that people have to believe that the words they say will come to pass, without doubting in their hearts. People who don't place a value on words and constantly say things they don't mean can't do this. They train their bodies not to believe or take their words seriously with many of the foolish things they say. Those who see the miraculous things come to pass that Jesus was promising in this verse are those who bridle their tongues all the time, not just when they are in a bind and need something from God.
