JULY 4, 1776

GOD and Country

Just as surely as the Lord told the pastor of the church at Ephesus that his church had left his first love (Rev. 2:4), America has left its first love: God. The United States was founded by people who loved and followed God. In 1620, the Pilgrims landed near what is today Plymouth, Massachusetts. There they erected a cross and prayed for the Lord's guidance and protection. From the very beginning, this nation was dedicated to God. Regardless of what history revisionists try to say, that's the truth!

How did the Lord tell the pastor in Ephesus to remedy his situation?

Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

Revelation 2:5

God says to "do the first works," which means to remember, repent, and return. This is how the Lord told the pastor at Ephesus to get back what he had lost. This will also work for us as individuals, and it will work on the national level too. We need to remember how this nation started, repent for the way that it is, and return to the standards and principles that made it great.

I'm grateful for all the wonderful things God has done in this nation. We all should be. But we need to remember what exalted us in the first place. Proverbs 14:34 says, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

Righteousness is the reason our nation has been great. And only righteousness will make it great again.

It never goes well for a country that forsakes the Lord. We can look to history to verify that.

We can't assume that if we continue toward ungodliness, America would be exempt from a similar fate that other nations that forsook the Lord experienced. We can't just stick our heads in the sand and pretend everything will work itself out; we need to return to righteousness.

When God sent Jonah to confront Nineveh, probably the wickedest city of his day, one of the things Jonah said before he went was, "They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy" (Jon. 2:8). That's a powerful piece of information! It says we forsake our own mercy by giving heed to lying vanities. The remedy to this is to give heed to the truth. The Bible says, "Thy word is truth" (John 17:17).

Truth and absolutes are not popular today, but it's the truth of God's Word that will keep us from forsaking the mercy of God. That's what happened after Jonah preached to the people of Nineveh. Scripture says they "believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them" (Jon. 3:5). An entire city was saved because one man had the guts to declare God's truth! That's awesome! God would do no less for America if we did the same thing. It's not too late for our country. With God, all things are possible (Matt. 19:26)!

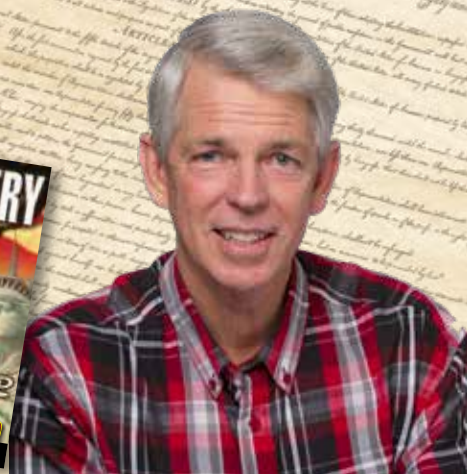

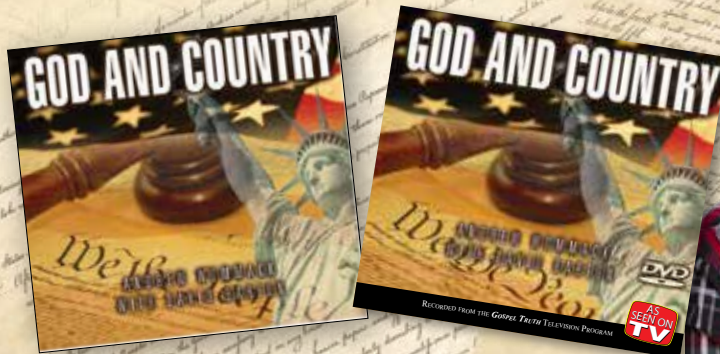

The very fact that He's still sending me and others, just as He once sent Jonah, means that it's not too late. We just need to remember from where we have fallen and return to our first love.

A while back, I met with a former senator who shared with me a lot of his views on what's happening in our nation. I was really encouraged. He said that he has become

GOD AND COUNTRY

Many Christians know very little about how to restore America to its godly heritage. But you can't restore something if you don't know what it originally was. Learn more in this series.

Truth and Liberty Coalition

Vision

The reformation of nations by igniting the latent potential in the body of Christ.

Mission

Establish and catalyze a movement that promotes the true formation and flourishing of nations through the teachings of Jesus Christ, empowering His people by providing content, cohesion, and direction to our 7 mountain coalition. Expose and abolish the seductive religious power of liberal progressive ideology and its promise of a counterfeit utopia.

more optimistic than ever about the future of our nation. He became convinced that the majority of Americans are not for all that is going on. But his assessment was that the ungodly are more committed to changing this nation than the godly are in preserving it. That's a shame. You know, we are the salt of the earth (Matt. 5:13). But we aren't doing any good if we remain in the salt shaker. Unless we break out of the four walls of the church and go into the secular areas, the church is not going to be the salt and light that God called us to be. That's why several leaders and I have started the Truth and Liberty Coalition.

It wasn't enough to win all the key victories we did in the 2016 elections. Those victories have given us an opportunity to start reversing ungodliness in America in a major way. But we're far from done.

You might ask, "How can I get involved?" Well, one of the first steps to getting active is having the right information to act on. That's why we've set up www.truthandliberty.net to help you keep up to date with what's going on around America, both politically and socially. This site will also let you know all the things we're doing currently to help steer the nation toward godliness. At this site, you can also subscribe to our 7M

Ventures, Inc., newsletter, donate, and learn more ways that you can get involved.

And don't think that this site is only for people in the United States. The changes in America - both good and bad - are reflected all over the world. What you learn at this site can help you regardless of the nation you live in. We're all in this together!

This month we're offering my series God and Country on DVD or CD. In this series, I interview David Barton, noted historian and proponent for America's godly heritage. I started this letter talking about remembering, repenting, and returning. The interviews in this series will help you do that. They are excellent for study and to share with others. Please order this today. You can order at www.awme.net, call our Helpline: +44 (0)1922 473300, or fill out the enclosed response form and mail it in.

CROSSING Borders and Languages

To order any of our Spanish products go to www.awme.net/shop/languages

Have you ever wondered if it was God's will that there be so many languages? Well, God's original plan didn't include people speaking different languages. But because of His decision at the Tower of Babel, diverse languages were used to separate and scatter the people.

As believers, we can look forward to the time when God will restore all things in Christ. Until then, Andrew Wommack Ministries recognizes the importance of communicating the message of God's love and grace in as many languages as possible. Due to AWM's main location, the obvious first translation choice was Spanish – the second-most spoken language in the world.

Translation efforts at AWM have been in progress for well over a decade, and the ministry hired a full-time Spanish translator in 2007. As of early 2018, Spanish translation is complete on 25 of Andrew's books, 12 study guides, and The Complete Discipleship Evangelism 48-Lesson Course (DE). Not including free digital downloads and product giveaways, AWM has distributed nearly 46,000 Spanish products to date, more than 5,300 of those in the last twelve months.

In fact, this year is on track to be the biggest year ever for AWM Spanish materials, driven in part by the popularity of the newer Spanish study guides. Darey and Karen Jolley, mission directors of Ambassadors to the Nations, use Andrew's materials to teach the 900 Nicaraguan middle and high school students in their schools.

"In the early days, resources were limited," Karen says. "Spanish materials were scarce because not everyone embraced the grace message. It's been such a blessing to have Andrew's things in Spanish. If we can train the kids and get them thinking right about God, they will be the ones to touch the nations and workplaces." Ambassadors to the Nations has also given out thousands of Andrew's Spanish books throughout Nicaragua, Mexico, Cuba, and Guatemala.

One of the earliest AWM products to be translated into Spanish was Andrew's foundational DE course. A few Charis Bible College students used the course to teach pastors and leaders throughout Colombia and in Costa Rica and Ecuador. Because of this early work, at least 800 Latin American pastors and leaders have now been disciplined through the DE tool.

Charis curriculum is also undergoing translation. All first-year courses and about 75 percent of the second-year courses have been completed. The rest of the second-year courses, as well as the Third-Year Leadership Program, should be finished by July 2019. So far, the Spanish curriculum is being used at Charis Mexico and Charis Argentina and is poised to be offered at Charis Fort Worth in Texas.

And there are many other languages that the AWM and Charis materials are being translated into. The DE course is available in around 26 languages, with more being added all the time.

Julie Palomares, codirector of Charis Mexico, says it's impossible to measure the impact being made by AWM Spanish products and Charis materials: "Everything that is translated is a seed. We are able to sow those seeds into places where it just wouldn't be possible otherwise."

When you give to AWM, you are helping us to cross borders and languages with the love and grace of Jesus.

LANDS of Liberty:

Walk in Your Freedom!

Hot dogs sizzling on the grill. Flags waving in the breeze. Fireworks lighting up the night sky.

This month, homes all across the United States will be immersed in the sights, sounds, and smells of the red, white, and blue. On July 4, 1776, the United States declared her independence from the British Empire and adopted the Declaration of Independence. It's the celebration of independence that has evolved into today's festivities. Liberty is an ideal that every person desires, and in Christ, the celebration of freedom is not reserved for only those of a certain nationality. It's available for all of us!

Second Corinthians 3:17 says, "Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." If you are saved, this spirit of liberty - the Holy Spirit - lives in you. Your "Independence Day" was the day you were born again and set free.

Romans 8:2 says, "For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." So, every Christian is a walking "land of liberty." And with your independence comes a newfound authority. According to Joshua 1:3, "every place that the sole of your foot shall tread" is given to you. When Jesus won the war over your heart, you received rights and privileges. You now have the God-given authority to release the spirit of liberty everywhere you go.

At Andrew Wommack Ministries, we are privileged to stand beside hundreds of thousands of people who have discovered their freedom in Christ through this ministry. One opportunity we have to stand beside you is when you attend our conferences. And one of the ways AWM celebrates Independence Day is with our annual Summer Family Bible Conference. Visit www.awmi.net/events often to see which conferences are coming up near you.

As Americans celebrate their freedom this Independence Day, let's all rejoice in the liberty we have in Christ. You have been empowered to live free of sin, sickness, and death. Now share that freedom with others! Happy Independence Day!
