POWER of Partnership

*A man's gift makes room for him,
And brings him before great men.*

Proverbs 18:16
New King James Version

Giving is a powerful force. It makes a place for us among the great (Prov. 18:16) and can change the direction of our lives (Prov. 21:14 and Gen. 26:12). Partnership is a special form of giving.

The Hebrew word that was translated "gift" in Proverbs 18:16, 19:6, and 21:14 literally means "present." These scriptures are not talking about an anointing or having favor, but about a present that one person gives to another. Proverbs 19:6 makes it clear that "every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts," and in 21:14, we read that "a gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath."

The New International Version translates Proverbs 18:16 this way: "A gift opens the way for the giver and ushers him into the presence of the great." I believe these scriptures describe a very important aspect of what happens when you enter into partnership with a ministry.

In 1 Kings 10, Solomon asked God for a very unselfish thing - wisdom - so that he could be a good king. Not only did God give him what he asked for, but He also gave him what he hadn't asked for and made him exceedingly rich. In fact, the Bible says that he was so rich that everything he had was made of gold, and silver was treated as stones - counted as nothing

(1 Kin. 10:21, 27). That's pretty rich!

The fame of Solomon spread throughout the land, and in 1 Kings 10:1-3, we read,

And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

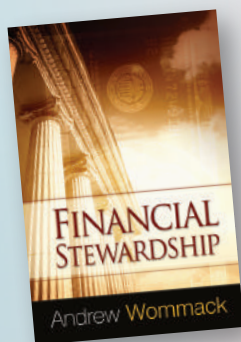

In 1 Kings 10:24 we also read that all the kings of the earth sought Solomon for his wisdom and for his blessing. Think about that; Solomon was the most famous man in the world at the time. He was ruler of the most powerful and prosperous kingdom in the world, and all the people of the earth sought Solomon for his wisdom and to receive his favor. So, with all these people competing for his time, why did he move the Queen of Sheba to the front of the line and spend so much time answering all her questions? I believe it was her gift that made room for her, just like Proverbs 18:16 says, and it brought her before a great man.

We read that she was well-prepared and came with many gifts. She gave the king 120 talents of gold (that's about 145,000 ounces, and at today's price, would be about £167,000,000 worth of gold). That doesn't include the great stores of spice, an abundance of which had never been seen before, and precious stones. It wasn't her skill, talent, or ability, but her generous gift that made room for her and put her at the front of the line.

So, what did the Queen of Sheba get out of this? Everything she wanted and more. First Kings 10:13 says, "And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty."

When you give to a ministry, it's not just what they need, it's what you need too!

King Solomon didn't need the queen's riches, but she needed his wisdom and blessing, and her gift opened the door to the very things she needed. She probably left with more riches than she brought. This is a great example of how things work in the kingdom of God.

In giving to a ministry, you not only bless the people that are being touched by that ministry, but you start a supernatural flow of your finances, and you partake of the anointing and the blessing that's on that minister's life. It's not bad to want the anointing that is on my life or that of another minister.

The Bible says that we are to desire spiritual gifts. I really believe that the things that are operating in my life have come in part because I have supported great men and women of God. I gave on purpose, saying, "God, I want to be a part of that. I'm going to sow part of my life into this person and into that ministry and, by doing so, open a door that allows the blessing that's on them to flow toward me." It doesn't just happen automatically; you have to have faith. But I believe that you can start seeing these things happen in your life, just as I have seen in mine, if you will mix faith with your gifts.

When you trust God with your finances and partner with us, you are receiving the same reward as those who go out and disciple. You are not just supporting a ministry - you are supporting the Gospel, and when you get to heaven, you are going to have so many people run up to you and hug your neck. You will be shocked, wondering when you touched all of these people. But when you partner with us, you become a partner with every person we are reaching. You become part of the AWM family that will stay in touch with you, pray with you, and bless you—there will be powerful resources made available to you. Not only will we be able to bless your life, but you then allow God to support you.

I encourage you to get my Power of Partnership teaching. You don't have to wait to take part in the blessings of a ministry. I've got this teaching in CD or DVD formats. AWMPACT: TRUTH and Victory in Healing

Today, you may have saved a life. Through your generosity to Andrew Wommack Ministries, you support a flourishing healing ministry—a ministry that has seen healing testimonies come pouring in. Praise reports include mobility regained; years of chronic pain gone; broken bones healed; hearts restored to health; canes no longer needed; tumors destroyed; vision, speech, and hearing restored; and much more.

Directed by Daniel Amstutz, Healing School is held nearly every Thursday at Charis Bible College Woodland Park. Healing School is free and open to the public, with teachings based on the Word of God. Daniel explains, "Andrew's heart for Healing School was for people to have an opportunity for ongoing instruction on what the Bible actually says on healing and health. Many people think it's possible for God to heal, but they believe it's all based on His sovereignty and whether He's in a good mood."

With its spirit-filled atmosphere, Healing School has seen numerous healings take place, including Maren Hamm's. Maren spent years of her childhood suffering from debilitating illnesses. After doctors said they could do nothing more to help Maren, her mother, Linnae, took her to Colorado to enjoy the mountains. They happened to book a cabin in Woodland

Park, Colorado, where the cabin clerk told them about Healing School. Maren and Linnae decided to attend. The truths they heard planted the seeds for Maren's complete healing one month later. Maren is grateful for ministry partners and says, "The only reason that I'm totally healed is because you've sowed into this ministry."

The annual Healing Is Here Conference is another regular event full of excitement and expectation for the supernatural. Over the years, thousands of healings have manifested during the conference. Daniel says, "We literally have seen miracle after miracle and healings and restorations of every kind happen." Speakers for 2019 include Andrew Wommack, Todd White, Daniel Amstutz, Carlie Terradez, Greg Mohr, and Audrey Mack.

Healings also arise out of the many other conferences that AWM holds every year, both in Woodland Park and around the world. For example, at the Gospel Truth Conference in Texas last May, people received healings from arthritis, hearing loss, back pain, blurry vision, and more.

Daniel believes that what distinguishes AWM is the emphasis on the finished work of Jesus. "The thing that really separates us from nearly everybody is the fact that we believe that healing is already a finished work. Nearly everybody who teaches on healing knows that God can heal, but we truly believe that it's already a done deal - we approach healing from a place of victory."

Daniel is extremely thankful to the partners who make it possible for the ministry to teach and minister healing according to God's Word to people all over the world. "I can't thank the partners enough. Without partners, we would not be experiencing a single healing. I believe that what they're investing in is going to outlast them."

GOING Off Radio, Going Farther with the Gospel!

Dear Friends and Partners,

As you may know, I've recently gone off radio. I've been broadcasting fifteen-minute segments of the Gospel Truth on radio since 1976, and it was a big decision for our ministry to quit the program. But because of your support, we are able to continue sharing the revelation the Lord has given me in a variety of other ways.

Our Gospel Truth television broadcast - shown all over the world - is still available. Another way is through our website. You can go to awme.net 24 hours a day, 365 days a year and download almost every teaching I have. You can watch or listen to every Gospel Truth radio and television broadcast I've ever done or enjoy recordings of our events anytime. We also have powerful testimonies you can watch on the website - Healing Journeys, Destiny Stories, and Financial Breakthroughs - that are worth watching again and again.

In addition, you can watch me and other trusted teachers on GospelTruth.TV, our internet television network, which is available 24/7. (You can find out more about this exciting platform in the next article.) And in case you didn't know, you can subscribe to my Gospel Truth TV and Gospel Truth Radio podcasts and listen to them on your favorite podcast platform. It's a great way to take all my broadcasts everywhere you go!

My Live Bible Study still meets every Tuesday at 1am (GMT). I usually have a guest with me, and as we teach the Word of God, viewers can interact with us through social media. It's awesome!

I just wanted to let you know the latest development of the ministry and share the different ways you can tune in and get this message. You know, I talk a lot about taking the Gospel as far and as deep as possible. And we're getting there because of you. Thank you for making this possible!

God bless you,

Andrew and Jamie
