Got It!

YOU'VE Already Got It!

Any blessing that you could ever need from the Lord is not something you have to strive for; it's something you already have. God made the provision before you ever had the need. It is just a matter of receiving what He has already done.

The book of Ephesians is written from the perspective of everything already being ours in Christ. In verse 3 of the very first chapter, it says,

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.

Emphasis added

Notice it says God "hath"-past tense-blessed you with all spiritual blessings. How could you ever doubt that God would give you something if He's already done it?

Back in 1973, when Jamie and I pastored our first little church in Seagoville, Texas, I didn't even have a complete Bible. The one I had taken with me to Vietnam was all mildewed, and entire books were missing. I decided that believing for a new Bible wasn't an option - it was a necessity.

I decided that I had to start seeing results somewhere, so it might as well be with a new Bible. If I couldn't trust God for $20 to get it, how could I trust Him to minister to people about eternal things?

The devil knew how important this was to me, and he fought me "tooth and nail." It took me months to get enough extra money to buy that Bible. During that time, not ten minutes would pass that I didn't have to deal with some thought of unbelief. The devil was telling me, "You'll never get it. Some man of God you are. You don't even have a whole Bible. How can you pray for people to be saved or healed when you can't even pray and get a new Bible?" The battle was intense.

The day finally came when I had the money. I bought a brand-new Bible, had my name engraved on it, and walked out of the store with it under my arm. Instantly, my doubts ceased. I had won! And did you know that I never again had another thought of doubt or unbelief about getting that Bible? You're probably thinking, Well, of course you didn't doubt once you had it. That would be crazy! That's my point.

God has given us everything we need. We shouldn't be struggling with thoughts of doubt and unbelief; we need to learn to receive what He has provided. We have to do that from a position of rest. That may sound easy, but it actually takes effort to rest.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

Hebrews 4:11

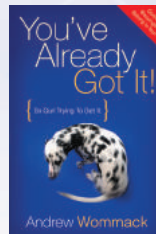

You have all the faith that you need (Rom. 12:3), but in order to appropriate God's provision by faith, you need to learn to rest. Now, I can tell you, it takes a lot of effort to rest! Why? Because your mind is going 24/7, and unless you are actively renewing your mind (Rom. 12:2), it'll go to worry, fear, care, and all of these kinds of things. That's why the Scripture talks about resisting the devil (James 4:7), which means to actively fight against him. One of the ways to renew your mind is by actively fighting against the devil's thoughts with the Word of God! If you don't put up a fight, the devil will eat your lunch and pop the bag (see 1 Pet. 5:8). He'll steal your peace. That's why you'll never hear me speak doubt and unbelief. I like my peace right where it is. The devil will not rent space in my mind. You can live the same way!

Learning to walk by faith is a huge part of the Christian life (Rom. 1:17 and 2 Cor. 5:7). It's how you relate to God and how you receive from Him. There are right and wrong ways to do this. Take healing for instance. There is a difference between fighting to get healed and fighting because you already are healed. It's the difference between failure and success. First Peter 2:24 says,

By whose stripes ye were healed.
Emphasis added

It's already a done deal. It is actually incorrect to pray for healing. Instead, we should be applying our faith to receive the healing that the Lord has already provided.

In Ephesians 2:8, Paul wrote,

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves.

We aren't saved by grace alone or by faith alone; we are saved by a combination of the two. Actually, faith isn't true biblical faith unless it is used to receive what God has already provided by grace.

Grace is what God has already done for us, independent of any worth or value on our part. If it's tied to some goodness of ours, then it's not true grace. God, by grace, has already provided everything we will ever need.

Our faith doesn't move God. If God hasn't already moved by His grace, then our faith can't make Him. Faith simply appropriates what God has already provided by grace. If He's already provided for our needs by His grace, then faith is just our positive response to what God has already done - not something we do to get God to respond to us.

It takes a revelation from the Holy Spirit to make these truths become alive on the inside of you. If you aren't experiencing the abundance that you know the Lord wants you to have, then I can guarantee you that the revelation you need is in my teaching You've Already Got It! This is the type of teaching that you will want to read or listen to again and again until it becomes true revelation knowledge to you.

To help you, I'm offering my You've Already Got It! Package. It includes the book, the study guide, and the CD or DVD series. You're going to be blessed. We love you,

Andrew and Jamie

How important are you to the body of Christ? First Corinthians 12:18–21 answers this question: “But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him. And if they were all one member, where were the body? But now are they many members, yet but one body. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.”

The same is true at Andrew Wommack Ministries. As a teaching ministry that touches lives all over the world, it takes a team of dedicated men and women to fulfill the vision. And you, our partners and friends, are a crucial part of that team!

Because of your faithful support, over 600 employees are helping Andrew reach farther and deeper with the Gospel. From the television staff, to the phone ministers, to those in other lesser-known departments that are equally as important, everyone has a part to play.

Betty from Arkansas shares, “I just want to thank Andrew for his teachings—I have now been listening for about three years. One day prior, I was flipping through the channels and stopped to listen to Andrew. It was like a spring of fresh water to me in the desert. I have had two grandchildren die: one at twenty-one and one at thirty. My husband had a stroke and heart attack. I am seventy and still working a physical labor job. I have no one to help. Andrew’s teachings are meat . . . like manna from heaven! Thank you, Andrew, for your teachings, and thank you that you have phone ministers who are available to agree with me.”

BECOMING Mighty and Unbeatable in Battle

*Blessed be the LORD my Rock, who trains my hands for war,
And my fingers for battle . . . My high tower and my deliverer . . . Who subdues my [enemies] under me.*

Psalm 144:1-2
New King James

Cindy Mezas's healing journey echoes this song to the Lord, as He preserved her from sickness and death. When Cindy, a single mother from Holland, was diagnosed with cervical cancer, she didn't know that she was about to face the most difficult battle of her life. But she was not alone; God was going to train her to win. In 2009, she was diagnosed with a tumor near her cervix. The doctors decided not to remove her uterus; instead they treated her internally, with radiation and chemotherapy, to kill the tumor.

Although she would win the battle against the tumor itself, the side effects from months of radiation treatment and chemotherapy damaged other parts of her body. New symptoms like hair loss, food allergies, and hay fever led her to search for answers. Cindy came across Andrew's teaching You've Already Got It! on the internet, and that opened her eyes to the laws of divine healing. In 2014, Cindy's health improved so much that she shared her testimony in an interview at a meeting of Andrew's in Holland. But the enemy was going to fight to steal her testimony.

In 2016, Cindy was drafting a book about her healing process. Then one day, she felt a sharp pain in her stomach. The pain was so intense that she fainted. She was taken to the hospital and the doctors discovered holes in her intestines; the radiation had "fused" other parts of her body. The doctors created a new route for her intestines, but the treatments were not working. The pain was so excruciating that Cindy felt she was ready to die. Finally, the doctors sent her home because they couldn't do anything else for her. At that point, she knew that God's Word was her only answer.

She started fasting to train her body to respond to her words. By faith, she stopped taking her medicine and immersed herself in the Word. She began doing things that she couldn't do before. She would crawl down the stairs and do dishes, even though sometimes she would fall asleep at the sink! She was using the laws that govern healing as a weapon. Cindy remembers, "I knew the pain was there, but I just treated it as if it was a lie."

Little by little, she could do more and more work around her house. Until one day, while she was praising the Lord, He suddenly asked her, "Where is the pain?" And filled with wonder, she realized that the pain was gone. The manifestation of her miracle was now evident to her senses. She was healed! The enemy attacked her two other times, but she had become "mighty and unbeatable in battle" (Heb. 11:34, Amplified).

Cindy continues to express her gratitude, "Really, [to] all the friends and partners of Andrew Wommack Ministries, thank you so much, because I'm alive and well, preaching and teaching the Word . . . and you enabled me to [win this battle] because everything was free."
