FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP

FINANCIAL Stewardship

Dear Friend,

Did you know there is more written in the Bible about finances than on heaven and hell, prayer, or faith? Jesus taught more about this subject than any other, so it's obvious that the stewardship of money is very important to God.

I know that as soon as a minister begins to speak on this subject, it is often met with skepticism, with people wondering about the motives behind the teaching. I understand why, and honestly, there are a lot of other subjects I would rather teach. But as God's steward of this ministry, it's not up to me - it's up to Him - and God wants His people to understand how to operate in this area.

When I teach on healing, it's not so I can be healed; I'm already walking in divine health. Likewise, when I teach on financial stewardship, it's not for my financial benefit but for yours. Jamie and I love you and just want to see you walking in the grace of God, full of faith, healthy, and prosperous.

Financial stewardship is probably one of the most misunderstood subjects in the Bible, yet one of the most important.

Jesus said in Luke 16:10-11,

He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. [11] If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

In other words, if you can't deal with finances and become faithful in that, you can't be trusted with anything. Finances are just the starting point.

Many people believe the money they have belongs to them. After all, they earned it. They've scrimped, and they've saved. They may even be working two jobs to make ends meet. They earned it, so it must be theirs. Right?

Wrong. It may seem that way, but it's just not true. Your bank account may be in your name, and you may have the title to your car or the deed to your home. But God is the one who gave you the ability to prosper. The first step in becoming financially responsible and blessed is to recognize God is your source. He gave you your life, your breath, your talents, and your abilities.

Deuteronomy 8:18 says,

But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he swore unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

When we understand that God is the source of all our blessing, it's easy to realize that we are merely the stewards of all that He gives us. One definition of steward is a person who manages the affairs, especially the money, of another person. And when we get the mindset of a steward, it continued

"It's about the favor of God."

totally changes the way we think about and use money.

Abraham is a great example of a person who had the mindset of a steward. He completely understood and acknowledged who his source was, and because of that, God abundantly blessed him.

Genesis 12:1-3 says,

Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee: [2] And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: [3] And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

A lot could be said about this passage, but I want to point out that the blessing was independent of what Abraham deserved and independent of his performance. It was the favor of God on his life that caused him to prosper. Do you realize that it's about the favor of God?

That isn't saying that you can sit in front of the television and expect God to put money in your mailbox. In 2 Thessalonians 3:10, the Bible says that if you don't work, you don't eat. But you need to recognize that even though you work, it is God's favor and blessing that bring the increase.

It all begins with the understanding that you are a steward.

I'm not able to cover here everything I want to say on this topic, but I encourage you to get my Financial Growth Package. You can get it in three formats: CD series, DVD series, or book.

To order, go to our website: www.awme.net, call our Helpline: +44 (0)1922 473 300, or complete the enclosed form and mail it in the envelope provided.

If you will honor God with your finances, He will take better care of you accidentally than you ever could on purpose.

We love you,

Andrew and Jamie

Changing lives by establishing Bible schools throughout the world

WHEN THE GOSPEL GOES FARTHER AND DEEPER

Andrew ministering at the Hong Kong Gospel Truth Seminar

When a farmer enlarges their garden, the intent is to produce a grander harvest. That's exactly what we're doing together through Charis Bible College World Outreach. The latest fruit we've reaped comes from the eastern side of the world: Indonesia and Hong Kong. (Did you know that Andrew is well known there? It's true!)

The Gospel is spreading quickly through Indonesia. Over 70,000 copies of Andrew's books have been sold in the country, and almost every title of his has been translated into Indonesian. It only made sense to establish an Andrew Wommack Ministries office there, which is what we did this past October. And in August 2017, a new Charis campus will open. Directed by Irwan and Angeline Siregar, both the office and school will help us more readily minister to those whose lives are being changed by this message.

Andrew also recently held his very first Gospel Truth Seminar in Hong Kong, attended by over 500 people each session. Many healings took place—too many to report here. But we would like to take the remainder of this newsletter to share with you one of the testimonies that came from these meetings:

I attended a traditional church, which did not emphasize God's divine healing or His signs and wonders. I know Andrew Wommack's ministry is famous [for] the divine healings. Before Andrew started his teaching, I Googled to find comments, if any, and I decided that I would leave if he started speaking heresy.

I mentally tried to challenge his statement that he had trusted God and had not been sick for over forty years and that we should rebuke sickness and, in the name of Jesus, command the sickness to leave.

I found no heresy in his teaching, which actually focused on the power of the words of God. I then realized that my narrow-mindedness caused me not to believe that God still works miracles and healing today. I was reminded that Jesus told His disciples that they would do bigger things (signs and wonders) than He did (John 14:12).

In 2015, I injured my left calf. [I] did not complete the physiotherapy and lived with recurring pain intermittently. My left foot could not do full flexion. Throughout Andrew Wommack's teaching sessions, I tried relieving the pain by massaging my left calf, to no avail.

believe in God's power. After the prayer, the flexion was healed! I was pleasantly shocked. I still felt pain in my left calf. Albert laid [a] hand on my calf, spoke twice to the pain and commanded it to go, and the pain disappeared.

In the following weeks I kept checking my left calf to make sure that the painless experience was not a delusion. It seemed too good to be true. Finally, I went hiking up a hill to test out the left calf. In the past, even a twenty-minute walk would cause pain. This time, after fifty minutes [of] hiking, the left calf remained painless and comfortable....

I thank God for showing me His reality and that He is alive, and He is still doing His divine healing work! In this experience, I believe there is a link between the faith of the prayer minister and faith on my part. I am very grateful for God's mercy even for me (with little faith).

- Zhou Zhang, PhD (Physics)

Thank you again for partnering with us and making testimonies like Dr. Zhang's a reality! This is what happens when the Gospel goes farther and deeper. Together we are reaping more than ever before. When you partner with us, it helps healings like this take place. Let's keep going!

Lives changed in Indonesia and Hong Kong

I wanted to leave immediately after the teaching, but perhaps prompted by the Holy Spirit, I asked the Lord for mercy and a sign like Gideon. I stepped forward to be prayed for by the prayer ministers, James and Albert. They asked me what I believed for. I showed them the difference of my two flexed feet. James prayed a simple prayer in the name of Jesus and commanded the left calf to be healed. I told myself to

LIVING Devotional

"Do" Versus "It Is Done"

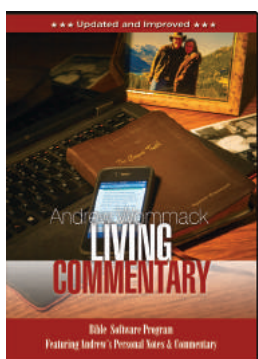

For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

Matthew 26:28

The Greek word for "testament" used here is diatheke, and it primarily denotes a contract, covenant, agreement, or promise (Gal. 3:17). Vine's Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words states that this Greek word "does not in itself contain the idea of joint obligation, it mostly signifies an obligation undertaken by a single person." In other words, in the New Covenant, it is not what we can do for God but what God has done for us.

The principle of the Old Covenant was "do" and we shall live (Rom. 10:5). The principle of the New Covenant is "it is done" (Rom. 10:6-9), and that includes redemption, reconciliation, righteousness, and sanctification. The work is finished! We are complete in Him (Col. 2:10)!

If the Old Covenant had been without defect, there would have been no attempt to institute another (Heb. 8:7). In the Old Covenant, people found themselves unable to abide in its agreement, for it was based upon people's performance (Ex. 19:5-8). The new agreement, however, was based totally upon God's grace (Rom. 4:4-5). Under the Old Covenant, people approached God through a priest (Heb. 5:1), while under the New Covenant, people have direct access to the Father through Jesus Christ (Heb. 4:16). Under the Old Covenant, people's sins led to their deaths (Heb. 10:28), while under the New Covenant, God is merciful to people's unrighteousness (Heb. 8:12; 1 John 1:8-9, and 2:1). Under the Old Covenant, people could not be cleansed of sin-consciousness (Heb. 10:1-4); while under the New Covenant, people's sins and iniquities are remembered no more (Heb. 8:12 and 10:17), and their guilty consciences are cleansed (Heb. 10:22).

We have been given so much in this New Covenant! I recommend using my Living Commentary software program to help you discover and understand all that you have in Christ. Get your copy today: www.awme.net/living-commentary

TESTIMONIES

What People Are Saying!

“ I read Andrew's Daily Devotional regularly and this is not the first time that the topic is very actual for me. Last night my daughter had a nightmare of losing her dad and she was very upset. I was trying to comfort her by telling about angels guarding over us and praying this over us. Today's devotional is about the same topic with Psalm 91 which I was going to read for our children this morning. I praise God for his timely messages that reassure truths in our hearts and for his delivering servants like Andrew Wommack. ”

“ I was just so blessed by the teaching on success I decided to give a gift on behalf of our church above my usual giving amount. Within fifteen minutes, someone gave us a huge gift in return. Praise the Lord for some instant returns! ”

“ Dear AWME I would like to thank my brother John of the call centre, who stood with me at a very difficult time in prayer, when I felt particularly weak. I received prayer for my bleeding to stop and my womb to be completely healed, having had a miscarriage. The bleeding stopped completely two days later, praise be to the Lord! I am healed! Lots of love and God bless you all. Num 6:24-26 ”
J.B from UK

“ Hi Andrew, I was watching your programme this week on God TV about faith filled words and at the time was very sick after getting a bad chest infection after an operation in the area. I had been praying to God for healing and when I realised the truth of the Word from your programme I spoke to my "mountain" and told my body to heal, I told sickness it had no place in me as it is written that "by his stripes I am healed". I rebuked the infection and commanded it to leave and spoke continuously to my lungs telling them to heal and within 36 hours I felt better than I have in the last two years! Glory to God and thank you Andrew for helping me to realise the truth which is written in the Word for us! I am so happy and so joyous thank you so much! I feel so alive inside and I feel committed to your ministry now, I want to partner with you so that you can reach others just like me. God bless you and your family and your ministry. ”
