Observing All Things

How much does the Bible get in the way of what you believe? If you're like most Christians, you believe in Jesus, but you've compartmentalised your faith so that your Bible beliefs have only a little influence over other areas of your life. For many, the Bible doesn't influence what they believe one iota! As long as they claim to believe on Jesus, they think they can believe whatever they want about issues in life and society. That is absolutely wrong! All that this means is they have not been taught to observe all things Jesus commanded:

Go ye therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you.
Matthew 28:19–20

You see, a disciple is a person who observes all things Jesus commanded. By and large, the church has not been making disciples. Their goal has basically been "Let's just get people born again and make sure they're headed to heaven." This has caused problems. Because the church isn't teaching people to observe all things Jesus commanded, there's a void in society where Christians ought to be taking a stand. When it comes to social or moral issues, a lot of Christians are silent or oppose what the Bible says. They've professed faith in the Lord, but they aren't disciples. That might sound shocking to you, but look at how Jesus responded to people who only put faith in Him:

Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed.

John 8:31

It's not enough just to get saved so you won't go to hell. You must continue in Jesus' words to be His disciple. This ought to be the goal of every single Christian! Yet it's amazing how many don't get this. When it comes to hot topics like homosexuality, abortion, and evolution, the church is divided. Most say, "You just need to stick to preaching the Word and stop getting into politics and social issues." But I am preaching the Word! It's not me who is invading the social, political arena; these things are encroaching on what the Bible has to say. The Word of God has instruction for every one of these areas.

If we stay silent, the unbelievers—who don't have a biblical worldview—are going to be the ones establishing all the policies, determining what we can and can't say, and what we can and can't do.

This is already happening, and many Christians have just accepted this.

A woman in our Bible college came and told me that every time I'd mention anything about economics, abortion, homosexuality, or creationism versus evolution, she would cringe and say, "O God, get him back on the Bible." But after being in the school for a year and a half, she said, "I've changed. And my position on nearly all of these issues has changed."

I pulled her aside and said, "I'm not trying to criticise you; I just honestly want to know how a committed Christian could have these viewpoints that are completely contrary to the Bible."

OBSERVING ALL THINGS

There's more to being a disciple than only faith in Jesus. That might sound hard to believe, but that's exactly what Jesus Himself said. You must continue in His Word to be His disciple; you must observe all things He has commanded.

Make this your goal when you order the Observing All Things CD or DVD Album. You'll also get the Observing All Things booklet free!

She said, "I loved Jesus and I really had committed my life to Him. But I really didn't love the Word. When I came to Bible college and started hearing the Word, I fell in love with it. I let the Word dominate me, and I couldn't hold on to my positions any longer."

You can love God and be liberal in your social views, but you can't love the Word and be that way. If your attitude, doctrine, or worldview doesn't line up with the Word of God, you need to change it, not change the Word of God.

Sadly, a lot of Christians are buying into a worldly doctrine because there isn't anyone opposing it or standing up for the truth. Well, I'm taking a stand against things that undermine the Word of God! You need to take that same stand. You might take offense at this because that was not the way you were raised or educated, or you've believed things for so long that you don't know if you can change. But, like I started off asking, how much do you let the Word of God get in the way of what you believe? Are you willing to take a stand? Are you willing to be a disciple of the Lord Jesus instead of just a convert? These are all good questions to ask yourself.

If you sincerely want to change and observe all things Jesus commanded, then you can start by getting my series, Observing All Things. In this teaching, I share on what I consider to be the three hottest social issues today—homosexuality, abortion, and evolution—and what God's Word has to say about them. Only the Holy Ghost can bring change to a person's life, but I think this teaching will help you, so I encourage you to get it. You can get this series in CD or DVD format. It will also come with a booklet that has a commentary as well as statistics and graphs on these three topics. To order, go to awme.net/observe, call our UK Helpline at +44 (0)1922 473300, or complete and return the enclosed form.

Charis Bible College is making a big difference in this area. Our first-year curriculum deals with these social issues. Our hope is that parents and grandparents will send their children to at least one year of Charis before they plunge them into secular colleges that are totally opposed to the Word of God in these areas. We are making disciples on a big scale!

Thank you for being a part of the solution by helping us equip these mighty men and women of God.

We love you,

Andrew and Jamie

Healing Is Here

WOODLAND PARK, CO

Open Your Hand to Receive Healing

When God sent Moses to deliver His people from the bondage of Egypt, He empowered him to do so. The Lord told Moses in Exodus 4:21, "See that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders (miracles) which I have put in your hand" (Amplified Bible). Going beyond his human limitations, Moses performed great miracles. But the greatest miracle was that God had placed all that power in the hand of one man.

The exodus from Egypt is not over. In our modern world, disease is like a pharaoh that keeps people in bondage. But God continues to deliver His people through His healing power. God's methods have not changed; He is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Today, God is putting miracles in the hands of believers, just like He did for Moses.

Because of Andrew's teachings, people all over the world are learning that healing is the fruit of God's unconditional love and grace. When people connect with the heart of God in the area of healing, the impossible becomes possible. That's why Andrew Wommack Ministries continually presents amazing healing stories of people who have received God's power to overcome incurable diseases. Andrew is committed to sharing these stories, because the testimony of one person is prophecy for another. These miracles truly glorify God!

This August, AWM has something very special planned. The 2020 Healing Is Here Conference will feature testimonies from some of the very protagonists you have watched or read about in the Healing Journeys stories. While this is one of our biggest events, the atmosphere will remain intimate. You will be able to hear supernatural healing testimonies in person, like the one of Johan Toet. Johan, a Charis Bible College Holland graduate, came down with yellow fever while leading a mission trip in Brazil. The diagnosis was terrifying. The doctor told him, "It's a deadly virus, chances are you're not going to make it." But Johan knew that God had a better report for him. Johan will be sharing the story of his remarkable recovery. Nichole Marbach, a Charis Bible College Chicago graduate, will also share her story of survival. The abuse she suffered as a child led her down a path of pain and destruction. But God delivered her from self-harm and healed her from bipolar disorder, which is considered incurable. Her journey started on a path of self-destruction, but God led her into a flourishing ministry.

The Healing Is Here Conference will offer workshops where attendees will learn how to receive and how to minister healing in a practical way. The instructors want to take you beyond healing and into the land of abundant life. You will learn how to maintain your health and how to age gracefully. You don't want to miss this event. We are going to take healing from the shelves of heaven and put it right into your hand!

The beautiful Charis Bible College campus in Woodland Park, Colorado, will open its doors for this free event on 11th - 14th August. An optional meal ticket will be available for purchase. Children are welcome, but no childcare is provided. Go to healingishere.org/news for more information. Need accommodations? Go to awmi.net/lodging. And go to VisitCOS.com to check out all the fun things to do while you're in the Pikes Peak Region.

AWMPACT: Generously Sharing the Gospel!

The best way to help people learn is to break down all the barriers between them and a life-changing teaching. That has been at Andrew's heart since the beginning and is manifest in how much free access and products this ministry provides. From online lessons and free programs, to books and whole conferences, a bank balance shouldn't stop anyone from hearing the Good News of God's love.

In 2019, Andrew Wommack Ministries kept up this commitment: We sent out over 250 thousand products for free and had over 150 thousand unique visits to GospelTruth.TV, our 24/7 internet television network. On top of that, we had over 16 million total visits to our home site, awmi.net, where hundreds of lessons are available to help encourage and guide those looking for God's voice.

We hear stories from all over the country and all over the globe about how the free resources that AWM provides helps change the lives of those in need.

I got saved in jail, probably twenty years ago. I went to church faithfully for many years, but went through a horrible experience with my church that left me feeling lost and confused. I remember specifically praying, 'God, I just want the truth of who you are.' The next morning, I woke up and turned on The Gospel Truth with Andrew Wommack! My Holy Ghost did a flip, and I knew God had answered my prayer. When I first started listening, I didn't even have a credit card in my name, and I kept calling and getting those free CDs. Now I own my own home and am able to be a partner.

Thank you for the teaching articles on awme.net that I can read with an Indonesian translation online. I often heard the name of Mr. Andrew Wommack from my Christian friends on Facebook; they talked about Mr. Wommack's books, but I had trouble finding them because I lived in a small town. Thank God that I found awme.net when I was thinking about why I hadn't seen many new habitual changes after I knew that I was loved by God and justified by grace. Teaching articles on Andrew's website helped me to get to know who I am in God's grace and what I need to do in His grace. Terimakasih dan salam kasih dari saya—Thank you and greetings of love from me.

"For God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

A biblical response to the coronavirus

The coronavirus has resulted in a huge number of changes in a short amount of time.

It's like a perfect storm was waiting to happen. First, we're in an election cycle with political motivations running high. Next, we have so many people in the world who operate in fear on a normal basis that when something comes up that man doesn't have the answer to, they just panic. Finally, we have a news media that always presents the worst-case scenarios. They've been responsible for amplifying fears about the virus. When you combine these elements, you get a tsunami of reaction and fear.

I believe it's important that we respond biblically to any situation.

I often say, there's a ditch on either side of the road. On the one hand, some people think we should ignore what's going on and not change anything. On the other hand, some people have fallen into an absolute panic. Neither response represents a biblical approach.

First of all, as believers we should never be moved by fear. 2 Timothy 1:7 says, "For God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." Fear should never motivate us. 1 John 4:18 says, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made in perfect love." It's faith, not fear that we operate in.

However, that doesn't mean that we shouldn't take any precautions. We need faith not foolishness.

We also need to understand that not everybody has the knowledge and faith that we do. 1 Corinthians 8:6-7 says, "But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him. Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge..." This verse helps us to realise that not all people are at the same place we are in faith—and if they tried to imitate us, it could destroy them.

Having said all this, I believe we're going to come through this better than ever. People have been able to spend more time in the Word. I've been studying the Word up to ten hours a day. We have over 200,000 hours of free materials on our website. If you read for eight hours per day, it would take you sixty-eight years to get through all the teaching available to you.

Through the livestreams I've been having, we're reaching more people with the Gospel. The online service I held on 22nd March with Jesse Duplantis, Duane Sheriff, and John Tesh reached a quarter of a million people. Because of the foresight of my staff, we've been able to smoothly transition our phone centre employees to work from home and answer calls. Our UK Helpline is open from 8am - 9pm, Monday through Friday. If you need prayer for any reason, we have prayer ministers here who love you and want to encourage you in the Lord. Just call +44 (0)1922 473300.

With a biblical response, we're going to get through better and stronger than ever. I'm agreeing with you for your health and miraculous supply—during this season and beyond.
