THE Word Became Flesh

God Speaks Through You!

Why did Jesus have to come to earth as a man to save us? And if it was necessary for Him to come, why did God wait 4,000 years to send Him? These are important questions, and the Bible does a great job in answering them. It's just that many of us haven't taken the time to look.

The Lord knew that He would have to redeem man - before He even created him. In fact, He had a plan to redeem mankind from the foundation of the world (Rev. 13:8).

But after Adam and Eve sinned, God couldn't just "pour out His glory" and save them. It wasn't that simple. In order for God to execute His plan of salvation, He had to have a man who would cooperate with Him. Why? Because He had given authority on earth to mankind:

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

Genesis 1:26

The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD'S: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

Psalms 115:16

This might be putting a new wrinkle in your brain, but when God gave authority and dominion to man, He took His power, His right to rule the earth, and gave it to physical human beings. God literally placed restrictions on Himself through His own words. He would have had to break His word to start operating on the earth independently of man. Most people struggle to believe this because they don't let the Bible get in the way of what they believe. But this explains why it took so long for God to send Jesus. Before, He could just speak things and it would happen instantaneously. After giving man His authority, God had to get them to speak His Word. It took Him 4,000 years to find people who would yield enough to Him to prophesy everything about the Messiah. In a sense, He was borrowing man's authority to speak Jesus into existence!

In the same way that God once had the authority to speak things into existence, man now had to speak Jesus into existence!

Galatians 4:4 says, "But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son." If you study that out, you'll find that it means at the appropriate moment. Jesus could not have come onto the scene until then; all the prophetic utterances hadn't yet been spoken.

For example, it had to be prophesied that Jesus would be born of a virgin. That was critical because Jesus would not be just a good man. He was God manifest in the flesh. He was a God-man.

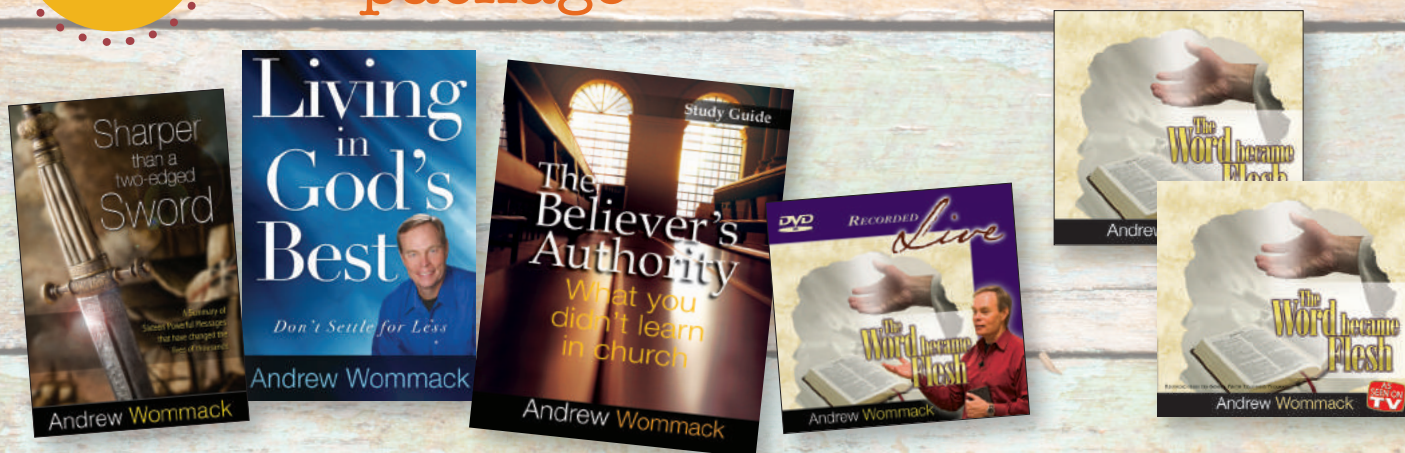

Luke 1:34-35 says,

Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? [35] And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

God's Spoken Word package

Here is what I believe happened: The angel basically told Mary that all of the words spoken over 4,000 years through hundreds of people were going to be conceived in her. First Peter 1:23 reads, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever."

The Greek word for "seed" in that scripture is spora. It is akin to the word sperma, which is talking about the seed of a man. The virgin birth of Jesus was completely natural in every respect except one: It was not from the seed of a man; the seed was the Word of God. The Word became flesh! All that had been prophesied about Jesus became the spora, or the seed.

Whether it's literal or symbolic, I believe that God placed a spiritual womb on the inside of us. We have to take His supernatural words and meditate on them until they conceive something, until they are in our hearts. Then we can speak those words into existence. God's plan will manifest on the earth to the degree that we yield and speak His words from our hearts. This is what Jesus was talking about in Mark 11:22-23:

And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. [23] For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

God's Word is alive (Heb. 4:12)! His Word is life and health unto all of your flesh (Prov. 4:20-22). He sent His Word to heal and deliver you from destruction (Ps. 107:20) and more. For those who will place His words in their hearts, they will see manifest what they believe and speak. It's awesome!

What I have written here is just a very small part of the teaching I've entitled The Word Became Flesh. When I taught this at a Gospel Truth Seminar, Jamie and many members of my staff told me it was the best they had ever heard me teach on this subject. This series is available to you in CD and DVD formats. It is also included in the God's Spoken Word Package.

ANDREW Unplugged:

Andrew's Live Bible Study

"This is something most of you have never thought about, or if you have, you probably don't have an answer." If you missed what Andrew was referring to, then you missed a lot.

During Andrew's live Bible study on March 28, Andrew discussed the topic of creation - most specifically, the fact that there seems to be differing accounts of creation in Genesis. By taking on this topic, Andrew showed that creation wasn't just "seven days and then God rested." There was so much more that took place.

People know Andrew as a Bible teacher. Many watch him on television, DVD, or Roku, and others listen to his audio teachings. Some even go see him in person. But there is no other format that is as interactive as his live Bible study that airs every Tuesday night.

During the one-hour study, he teaches for about thirty minutes and then spends the rest of the time answering questions from viewers, who can easily join the discussion through Facebook or chat. In addition, viewers who sign up for Andrew's notes receive them by email following each broadcast.

As for his teaching on creation, Andrew shared some revelation on the difference between God's creation of man and His creation of woman. Adam was created out of the dust of the ground, but Eve was taken from Adam's side. The scriptural explanation is found in Genesis 2:21-23:

And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs... [22] And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman.... [23] And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

Could this be saying that Adam was both man and woman until God removed a part of him to fashion Eve? We suggest you go back and watch the March 28 live Bible study to hear Andrew's fascinating teaching of the creation account.

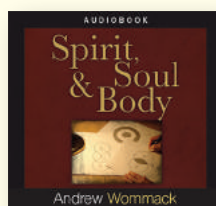

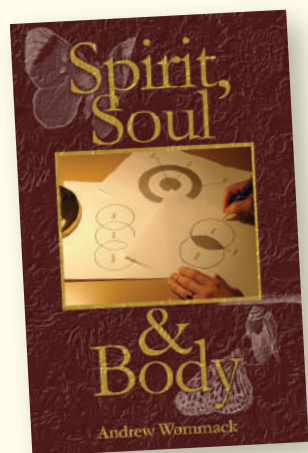

Going forward, be sure to tune in every Tuesday night at 6 p.m. (MT) for more teaching you won't hear in a typical church setting. In fact, when talking about what happens during the live Bible study, Andrew put it like this: "I share things I don't typically share with people. Last week [March 28], I said things I don't think I've ever said before."

Join us to find out what Andrew will say next. We know you'll be blessed!

BREAKING Chains and Finding Peace

For years, Deb Farley struggled with two warring views of God: Was He good or was He not? Hearing conflicting and often condemning messages from the pulpit, Deb quit using church to search for a truth she knew she hadn't found yet - until she received a phone call one day from a friend who asked if she had heard about Andrew Wommack.

"When I started watching Andrew, I was really mad because I had never been told that I was free in Christ," recalled Deb. "I was never told that He died on the cross for me to walk in victory. I had sat in church for over twenty-three years and never understood any of this."

After hearing about Charis Bible College, Deb decided to take the first year through the Charis Correspondence Program. "I'd shut myself up in the morning, and I kept going sometimes till five o'clock at night, listening to all the teachers and the different classes," Deb explained. "I really felt it wasn't by accident that I took those classes because, for the first time, I began to know who God was. I was experiencing His love; I was experiencing His acceptance, almost to the point that I was having a hard time even believing that it was all true! But as I went through the first year by correspondence, I was starting to get free, and I knew that I needed more."

Deb and her husband made the move to Colorado, and soon after, Deb became a second-year student at Charis. "It was a real growth time for both of us," Deb said. "God had told me, 'I'm going to take you to a new land that you don't know, so that you can learn about Me and who

I really am.' After I moved to Colorado, a major transformation started happening in my life."

In the eight years since moving back to Massachusetts, Deb has been working as the director of Charis Gardner, taking the same message that transformed her own life and ministering it to her students. "What gives me the most satisfaction is the heart change in the students [who] come through the school. Watching the change in their lives has been so rewarding to me," Deb said.

"We're so thankful that Andrew Wommack is [taking] this grace message all over the world, but it's hitting New England.... New England is deep in religion; it's deep in Law. They love mixing Law and grace, and I believe that it is breaking. I believe that through our students, we're making an impact here and setting the standard of the truth of the Gospel."

Just like Deb, you can be a part of taking the grace message to New England and breaking the chains of religion that have held that area captive for too long. Team up with Charis Bible College World Outreach as we reach the corners of the world. You will be a part of a legacy that has only just begun.
