

WORLD OUTREACH

TRAINING LEADERS. TRANSFORMING LIVES. IMPACTING NATIONS.

Hello World Outreach Partner,

With so much happening in the world today, it is now more important than ever to keep our eyes upon the Lord! Galatians 1:4 tells us that Jesus gave Himself for us and overcame “this present evil world”. I am so grateful to God that He has already provided everything we need to live a victorious life experiencing every promise He died to give us as our birthright. God is absolutely amazing!

I wanted to communicate with you in response to the January World Outreach newsletter recently put out highlighting our Charis campus in Belfast, Northern Ireland and our Directors, Craig and Maud Jamison. There were several quotes in this newsletter that were assigned to them that were actually taken out of context, and even in some cases, misquotes. We would like to apologise to them that the narrative of this newsletter portrayed them in a way that neither reflects their character, nor the character of this ministry.

Also, in reviewing this newsletter, Ireland is depicted in a manner that was never our intent. We know that Ireland has played a tremendous role in the history of propagating the Gospel throughout the world! Even more than this, we believe that both Northern and Southern Ireland, and the Irish people, have an anointed part to play in the continued advancement of the Gospel. If our previous communication expressed anything besides these sentiments, we would like to express our sincere apologies.

We all have been equipped with the greatest message ever told, as well as the supernatural power to manifest this message. God has placed His Spirit on the inside of each of us and turned our perspective from that of a natural view to an eternal one. I would like to challenge you to continue your pursuit of the Lord to discover what you have been given. You have a tremendous part to play in ministering to a world that is hurting and looking for answers! As we continue to partner together, I believe that we are destined for growth and success.

Finally, Brothers and Sisters, I would like to remind you that when God looked through time, He specifically chose you to be alive now, and be right where you are! Ephesians 2:10 says that “we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works...”. God has an amazing purpose for your life. Continue to grow in knowing your God, and in discovering the adventure that He planned for your life. As you do, you will find yourself more fulfilled and impactful than you ever dreamed possible.

We thank you for listening to our hearts and the grace and understanding you extend towards us. Thank you for your prayers and partnership with us! We stand with you and believe for God's continued blessings to rest upon your lives!

Mike Pickett

Vice President of Charis Bible College and Andrew Wommack Ministries International Operations