Destiny: God's Perfect Plan for Your Life

What is God's will for your life? You know, most Christians wouldn't be able to answer that. It's something they spend all of their lives searching for. I was in the same boat, so I know it's a place you can get stuck. But what if I told you there's a way to prove what the will of the Lord is?

You might have been told, "Oh, there's no way you can know God's will for sure. You just pray and hope that you get it right." Not so. God has a perfect plan for your life, and He wants you to know it! At the church where I grew up, the leaders told me knowing God's will was similar to the way you'll know the right person to marry. You'll just hear bells ring or something.

They said God is just sovereign, and He'll automatically make things come to pass. That didn't work for me, so I kept seeking.

Then, in 1967, I went with my church group to a retreat in Cloudcroft, New Mexico. At the meeting, I heard a man quote Romans 12:1-2:

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Then he said that word "prove" means to make manifest to the physical senses what is the good, the acceptable, and the perfect will of God. That's what I'd been searching for! It was like God was putting a neon sign on this passage. Most people don't know this, but the revelation I received at this meeting is part of what led to my life-changing encounter with the Lord several months later, on March 23, 1968. God totally renovated me - and it happened through becoming a living sacrifice and renewing my mind.

The problem with a living sacrifice is that it keeps wanting to crawl off the altar! What a lot of people do when they get into trouble is they'll go to seeking the Lord, they'll run up a white flag, and do whatever He wants them to do. Then, once they yield and God pulls them through, they go back to doing all the things that caused them to be in that situation in the first place. Living sacrifice means it's something that has to be done over and over. It's not a one-time deal.

The Bible says that "there is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Prov. 14:12). You weren't made to govern your own life (Jer. 10:23). But when you make a commitment to the Lord and say, "God, I'm not smart enough to run my own life," then you'll become this living sacrifice that Romans 12 is talking about. You've got to "trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding" (Prov. 3:5). That's the right choice.

The last part of Romans 12:1 says that this is your reasonable service, or your normal Christian duty. That means it's not just for full-time ministers. God gave His life for you. He loves you! The least you could do is give everything you have to Him and live for Him.

I've had people come up to me and say, "Would you please cast self out of me?" No, I can't cast self out of you. Until the time that you go to be with the Lord, you've got to lay self on the altar.

But did you know that if all you do is become a living sacrifice, that's not enough? The Scripture goes on to prescribe that you not be conformed to this world. The word conformed literally means to be poured into the mould of. In this life, you're going to have hardship. Jesus promised it (John 16:33). You aren't going to exit this world the same way you came in. Life is like a fire, and it's going to melt you. The good news is you get to pick what mould you're poured into. Romans 12:2 says don't be poured into the mould of this world.

For what purpose? To be transformed by the renewing of your mind. You've got to become a living sacrifice and you've got to renew your mind! I tell you, it's both. The Word of God says that if you'll do that, then you will prove - make manifest to the physical senses - what is the good, the acceptable, and the perfect will of God.

These verses transformed my life and helped me learn God's perfect plan for me, and I'm just giving you the highlights. We have a new event coming up September 16–18 called the Destiny Conference, which will be based on the principles in my book called How to Find, Follow, and Fulfil God's Will. If you attend the conference, you'll receive a free copy! If you can't attend, you can purchase the book and stream the conference for free at GospelTruth.TV.

I've also got a brand-new book out entitled Romans: Paul's Masterpiece on Grace. It's 432 pages! In addition, I've got CDs and a couple of DVDs that are called Grace Encounters. These have testimonies of people whose lives have been transformed by this grace message. Lastly, we're also offering my Living Commentary, which is a digital version of a regular commentary. It's got my comments on over 25,000 out of the 31,000 total verses in the Bible. It contains something like thirty to forty years' worth of my personal study and revelation and would really be a blessing to you. It's called a Living Commentary because I'm still writing it, and every time you go to our website, it'll automatically update you with the new notes that I've written, along with any additions or corrections.

The Romans package we've put together for you is a great deal! To place an order, go to our website, awme.net/promo-offer/romans, call our UK Helpline at +44(0)1922 473300, or complete and return the enclosed form. GT

Delusional? No. Just Standing on God's Word!

Many people want to experience a miracle. But it often takes a dogged kind of faith to see it happen. AWM partners Al and Angie Buhrke can attest to this.

Through Andrew's teachings, Al and Angie had learned to stand on God's Word, regardless of circumstances. So, when Al fell from a ladder while cleaning an air conditioning duct, the Word was their default response.

When Angie, who wasn't home at the time of Al's fall, saw her husband lying motionless on the kitchen floor, she immediately remembered the verse the Lord had spoken to her two weeks prior: "Be still, and know that I am God" (Psalm 46:10a).

She remained at peace and called the paramedics, who transported Al to the hospital.

The doctor's prognosis was grim. He was talking about extensive surgery to repair Al's fractured hip and pelvis, to which Angie responded, "I don't accept that." In the face of the horrific x-rays, Angie remembered the Healing Journey of Alan and Debbie Moore and said, "In fact, my God can heal my husband without surgery."

Hearing that, the livid doctor told Al that Angie was delusional. But the Buhrkes knew that an acetabular fracture, no matter how severe, was no match for God's healing power. In fact, Al held a Bible study in the ER that night, which further infuriated the doctor.

Al was eventually transferred to another hospital where a second set of x-rays was taken. He kept believing he would not need surgery and commanded his hip to be healed. Angie heard the Lord say, "A miracle is taking place right now," and she fully expected to see it.

The following morning, they were overjoyed when the surgeon told them that although the second set of x-rays looked worse than the first, Al was not going to have surgery.

He was discharged and instructed not to bear any weight on his feet for the next ten weeks. But he and Angie immediately agreed that the recovery time would be shortened by half.

After five weeks, Al decided to visit the doctor to have his hip checked. The doctor looked at the x-rays and said, "This is healing beautifully. Just walk." Al's recovery was miraculously shortened from the initial prognosis of eight to twelve months - with surgery and rehab - to five weeks without surgery!

The Buhrkes experienced a miracle because they decided to stand on God's Word. Today, Al walks normally with no signs of injury. He remarks, "The outcome was a lot different than if I had just agreed with the doctor and said, 'Oh, we need surgery.' I actually have to think . . . Which side did I fall on? That's how perfect I am!"

Angie says, "There would be no testimony today if it were not for Andrew Wommack Ministries. He [Andrew] put us on the right track."

Al and Angie now have their own ministry, and their Victory Life Today program features regularly on GospelTruth.TV.

Ministers, you've faithfully served the Lord, sharing His goodness and love during the challenging times brought on by COVID. Does a week of fellowship, encouragement, and refreshment sound like what you need? Then come to our 2021 Ministers Conference!

Every year, Andrew Wommack holds the Ministers Conference at Charis Bible College so ministers of the Word can come and be refreshed. It's easy to get so wrapped up in ministering to others that you neglect your own spiritual health. Andrew will be joined by Jesse Duplantis, Pastor Duane Sheriff, and other anointed speakers who are excited to help their fellow ministers find their passion, build community, and be refreshed in the Spirit.

Pastors and ministers have had to deal with many pressures and changes over the past year. During his life, King David also faced pressure as a leader. Not only did his enemies attack his land, but his own people complained in discontent. Yet David was able to overcome his situation by strengthening himself in the Lord (1 Sam. 30:6). We want today's leaders to be strengthened in the Lord, just like David was.

LaMont and Sharon Rich manage pastoral relations at Charis, and they are thrilled to invite ministers to this event. LaMont says, "Andrew Wommack's 2021 Ministers Conference is sure to be a place of refreshing and recharging for ministers across the globe. I believe the very essence of your attendance speaks to the overcoming grace and victory pastors experienced during the past year of the pandemic. We have no doubt you will leave with renewed and continued grace for the vision

God has placed in your heart."

Here's what some past attendees say about this conference:

The Ministers Conference has been everything that I could've possibly needed and then some. Being in this environment, being surrounded by people who are in agreement and also understand where you are as a pastor, this is a great place to be. Any pastor who doesn't come here is missing out!

— Richard W.

We feel like we really learned a lot and got refreshed and inspired and can take that back with us to the mission field. We've been reinvigorated!

— Menorah M.

The ministers who come to this conference want to come back every year to be encouraged and blessed. You'll want to make this a yearly event!

The 2021 Ministers Conference takes place 5th - 8th October at Charis Bible College livestreamed from Woodland Park, Colorado exclusively to those who register via the Andrew Wommack Ministries Europe office based in the UK. It is free of charge and open to all full-time or part-time ministers. Visit awme.net/events or call our UK Helpline on +44(0)1922 473300 to learn more and to register. Be strengthened in the amazing work you do for the kingdom! GT

The Path to Healthy Relationships That Shine!

By Carrie Pickett

Carrie Pickett is the Director of Charis Bible College Woodland Park. She has a passion for God's Word and teaching the truth. Carrie spent sixteen years ministering in Russia and leading a Charis campus before returning to the United States to serve at Charis Woodland Park. She and her husband, Mike, will be speaking at the Dallas Gospel Truth Conference in November. They are blessed with two children.

It's amazing how God can shine through our relationships when we turn them over to Him.

Recently, I was on a cruise with a friend. Her whole company had won a trip on an Alaskan cruise, and she invited me to go with her.

My husband, Mike, wasn't there, and I missed him very much. So, I spoke a lot about him and our kids. One of my friend's colleagues, who was sitting at our table, looked over at me and said, "I've never heard anybody talk about their husband the way you do."

I responded, "Yeah, I've got a great husband!" And I continued talking about my family.

Eventually, he said, "You know, I wish I had what you have," and I replied, "Well, why don't you?"

That conversation eventually opened the door for me to minister to him about relationships.

When we have healthy relationships, people will be attracted to us. They'll see a light in us, and we will have a testimony.

Know that God wants you to have healthy relationships. However, you can't have anything healthy until you're right with Him. When you develop an intimate relationship with God, it becomes easier for you to trust Him and give Him ownership of what matters the most to you.

Anything you give to God becomes wide open and ready for miracles. When you hold it captive in your own grasp, wisdom, and abilities, you're not allowing Him to touch it with His glory.

God has all the wisdom we need for healthy relationships. That's why I love the book of Proverbs.

"My son, if you receive my words, and treasure my commands within you, so that you incline your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding; . . . Then you will understand the fear of the Lord, and find the knowledge of God. For the Lord gives wisdom; from His mouth come knowledge and understanding."

Proverbs 2:1-2 and 5-6 (New King James Version)

When you really value someone, you go to them first for advice, right? Well, that's also how it should be in your relationship with God. Strive for intimacy with Him. Value and treasure His words by making Him the first - not the last - person you go to for wisdom.

Once you do receive His guidance, don't argue with it - run with it! Even if it doesn't feel comfortable, don't argue with it. He will guide you along the right path to healthy relationships that shine!

When people think of a parking garage, they may think only of a multi-level, concrete structure where they park their car. While this is true, the parking garage at Charis Bible College serves a greater purpose. Not only does it provide convenience and safety to anyone parking their vehicle, but through our conferences and events, it enables us to reach more people with the Gospel and see lives transformed!

Imagine walking a quarter mile in the hail, rain, or snow to make it to class on time or to attend your favourite event. Picture parking in a remote gravel lot, missing the shuttle, and waiting for the next one to arrive. Before the completion of the parking garage, this was common for our students, staff, and conference attendees:

I remember when I was a student in 2014 and we were only meeting in The Barn. There were times when we had to park way out in the dirt lot. It was a challenge, especially if it was cold and you missed the shuttle. However, the school has so much to offer, so it was worth it.

— Josue I.

It is nice not to have to be concerned about hail damage or having to brush my car off during the winter months when it snows while I am at work.

— Yvonne B.

One alumnus is excited about the guests we can accommodate at our Charis Woodland Park campus:

We have been able to host more people for conferences, and there is an even greater capacity to see lives transformed, as mine has continued to be!

— Pieter D.

Due to the generous support of our partners and friends, the parking garage debt is now reduced from $28 million to $7.6 million! We know that all things are possible to those who believe (Mark 9:23). Please agree with us that this debt will be paid off quickly so we can move forward with future projects to advance the kingdom!

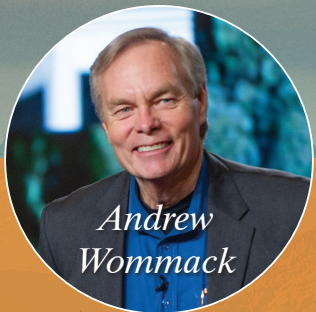

Thank you, partners, for being an important part of what the Lord is doing through this ministry. Together, we are making a difference in the lives of each person who visits our campus! GT

Note: Testimonies have been edited for length and clarity.

To help pay off the garage and be a part of the continuous growth of the Charis campus, become a Foundation Builders partner or make a one-time donation today at awmi.net/partner.
