GOD Wants You Well

During His earthly ministry, Jesus used miracles like a dinner bell. He used them to prove He could forgive sin (Mark 2:10-12). God used them to authenticate Jesus and His message (Heb. 2:3-4). And Jesus told His followers that they would do the same works He was doing (John 14:12). He said that the preaching of His Word would be confirmed by signs and wonders (Mark 16:20).

So, why aren't we seeing greater manifestations of His healing today? Aren't people still suffering from sickness? Doesn't Jesus love people today just as much as He did when He walked the earth? Don't believers still need to see demonstrations of His power?

Yes!

We need the healing power of God today. And God wants to release that power. Hallelujah! However, healing isn't up to God alone. It isn't God who decides who gets healed and who doesn't. That's radical but it's true. And in that statement is where we find some of the greatest obstacles to receiving God's healing power.

One of the worst doctrines in the body of Christ is the belief that God either controls or allows everything and that if Satan has anything to do with tragedies, it's because he got God's permission before he did anything.

That's a convenient theology because it absolves the individual of any personal responsibility. Being relieved of responsibility is also the reason for its popularity. But that belief will kill you. God's will doesn't automatically come to pass. We have to believe and cooperate with Him to receive what He has provided for us. This includes even our own salvation.

Second Peter 3:9 says,

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

That's as plain as the Scripture can make it. It is not God's will for anyone to perish, yet people still do. In fact, Jesus said more people would enter through the broad gate unto destruction than enter through the narrow gate unto life (Matt. 7:13-14). God doesn't force salvation on people.

People don't have to ask Jesus to save them. They just need to believe the nearly-too-good-to-be-true news that their sins are already forgiven and then receive their salvation (Acts 16:31). Well, the same thing is true of healing: God has already healed everyone, just as He has already paid for the forgiveness of everyone's sins. Healing is already an accomplished work.

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

1 Peter 2:24

Healing was given 2,000 years ago in Jerusalem when Jesus took those stripes on His back. He hasn't and won't receive any more stripes. It is finished. People today can receive what has already been accomplished by Jesus those thousands of years ago, but they must receive it through faith.

The Scriptures don't tell us to pray for the sick. Praying for the sick makes it seem like we are powerless to minister healing to them. But it's just the opposite: Jesus told us to heal the sick (Matt. 10:1, 8; Luke 9:1, and 10:9). There's a big difference between asking the Lord to heal people and you healing them.

I know many Christians are appalled at what I've just said. They think, Who do you think you are? Well, without Jesus, I am nothing (John 15:5), but the good news is that I'm not without Jesus! He will never leave me nor forsake me (Heb. 13:5). Hallelujah!

Therefore, I can say with the Apostle Peter, "Such as I have give I thee" (Acts 3:6). This is what Peter said when he ministered to the lame man in Acts 3. Peter didn't pray for this man. He didn't say, "O God, we can do nothing without You. Please heal this man if it is Your will." It's always God's will to heal (3 John 2). We don't ask and then wait and see. That's not believing His Word. Instead of beggars, we need to become believers who, knowing God's will, use our authority to heal.

Talking and acting like that will get us kicked out of most churches today. That's not the way many Christians believe healing is accomplished. And that's one of the main reasons we don't see more of the healing power that Jesus provided manifest itself.

I have prayed for thousands of people in my meetings across the country, and I have yet to see every person healed. It might be a problem in the heart of the one receiving prayer, or it might be something I don't understand in regards to that particular person. But one thing I know for sure is that it's not God's fault. I know what He's promised, and I know that His will is for all to receive healing.

Healing is such an important issue in the body of Christ. And most of you know that I never shy away from teaching on it. Over the next few weeks, I'll be talking about this on the Gospel Truth broadcast. I believe many of your questions about healing will be answered, like "What about Paul's thorn in the flesh?" and "Could God be trying to teach me something?"

I'm also offering the God Wants You Well Package. This package includes the God Wants You Well CD series, book, study guide, and booklet, along with all six DVD volumes of Healing Journeys. We've also added the Healing USB, which contains nearly forty hours of additional teaching on healing. TESTIMONIES:

What People Are Saying!

“Thank you for all you have done and all you do. It’s been at least one year since we first heard your teachings, and we are so grateful to you for staying the course and for having the courage to endure all you have gone through. Our eyes have been opened to the false teachings we were fed all our lives. We’re just now learning the truth and killing all the sacred cows that were leading us down the wrong path. We want to encourage you to continue on your journey of teaching God’s true meaning in His Word. Thank you for being obedient to act on what God has revealed to you and sharing that with us. Thank you for access to you not only on television but also through your materials and your website, which is so easy to navigate. We have both received spiritual and physical healing and expect continued healing and strength through hearing and reading the Word. A special shout-out to your wife, Jamie, for hanging in there with you all these years through all the trials and tribulations she endured right alongside you. She is a special blessing to you.”

“I want to thank you for your materials. I use them every day in the prisons in South Dakota to renew the minds of the inmates. I do nine classes and two church services every week, setting captives free with the power of the Word. Also, thank you for the books the men are given. Blind eyes are opened, hearts are changed, and lives are filled with hope. God is so good. Thank you!”

“I was getting free CDs and free tapes, and because Andrew’s ministry sowed into my life, he’s reaping the benefit of it now. It’s come full circle. And because of what I give, I am helping somebody else to be able to receive those free CDs.”

BACK to School with Charis

The secret to happiness and fulfillment in life is not what the world thinks it is. All the recognition, money, and followers on social media will never satisfy a person deep down in their heart. The key to true, lasting happiness is in knowing God (John 17:3). It's in intimacy with Him.

So, if intimacy with God is the key, then seeking Him should take highest priority in our lives! That's why Charis Bible College exists: to give people a place to know God and His Word.

Jeremy, a Charis graduate, made his relationship with God a priority, and it has changed his life. When he first decided to attend Charis Woodland Park, he had no idea what to do for work, how to pay for tuition, or how he would move across the country without a vehicle. But God made amazing things happen to get Jeremy where he needed to be. Within a matter of months, God provided him with two jobs, a free truck, and funds for tuition. About his time at Charis, Jeremy says, "Blessings have just been flowing in to me . . . since I've been here. I've been able to give, and the Lord has given back so much."

The quality of teaching at Charis can't be beat. Students receive revelation that allows them to experience an intimate relationship with God that stays with them long after graduation.

"The teaching has been awesome," Jeremy shares. "They really know how to turn head knowledge of the Bible into the Bible being the belief system of your heart."

Whatever your calling, Charis has the perfect program for you with Third-Year schools such as government, business, ministry, media, worship, creative arts, missions, and more. You'll get world-class training in your field as you deepen your intimacy with the Lord and experience true fulfillment.

"It will change your life. I know it's been changing mine," Jeremy says.

It's not too late to register for the upcoming academic year at one of our 5 Charis campuses in the UK, including our brand new school in Exeter. Or stay connected with the student body from wherever you are through Distance Education correspondence or online programs and Charis Hybrid. With a program to match any schedule, there is every reason to attend Charis and see your life changed through the Word.

Through your prayerful support, you are helping make stories like Jeremy's happen all over the world. And because of financial support from our partners, Andrew has been able to give students a place to connect with God and His Word and then take that Word and transform their worlds. If you want to play a bigger part in impacting lives, please consider becoming a Grace Partner. You can do so at any time by calling our Helpline: +44 (0)1922 473300 or by visiting www.awme.net/give. Thank you for your prayers. We are so grateful for you!

MILESTONE: Becoming Incorporated and Moving to Manitou Springs

While I was still in Pritchett, Colorado, I had a desire to go back on radio, but I didn't know how or where. Don Krow's brother-in-law, who lived in Colorado Springs, called me up one day and said, "I've been praying about it, and God told me that I'm supposed to put you on radio and pay your first month's bill. Would you pray about it?" I said, "Man, I've already been praying about it. I'll do it!"

This was in Colorado Springs - a much bigger market than the one in Childress - so my program went on radio. It just so happened that I got the slot in between Kenneth Copeland and Jimmy Swaggart, who were the two most popular radio preachers at the time. My program paid for itself within the first week, and people started supporting us and buying our products.

Around that time, we felt that we should incorporate Andrew Wommack Ministries. We did so in July 1978. And 2018 marks our fortieth year of incorporation, right alongside the fiftieth year of my supernatural encounter with the Lord. Thank You, Jesus!

A little while later, we left the church in Pritchett and moved to Lamar, Colorado.

Around that time, I was teaching at six Bible studies a week, in three different states! It was a lot of traveling, but I loved it. That's where I hit my stride because I had a lot of freedom that I didn't have as a pastor. That was also when we got our first employees, who ran our office, answered mail, and duplicated and sent out cassette tapes.

Eventually I began to sense that the Lord wanted us to move somewhere else. I wasn't sure where. After I'd been seeking Him for a while, He spoke to me that I could live anywhere I wanted because He wanted me to travel and develop a media ministry. Jamie and I really liked Colorado, so we picked Manitou Springs. As I continued to pray about it, the Lord told me I would be moving on January 1, 1980.

A man heard me on radio; God had really touched his life, and he told me that he wanted to give me his building, which used to be a small hotel. And it just happened to be in Manitou Springs! I asked him when it would be available, and he said after December 31, 1979. So, our first building in Manitou Springs was supernaturally given to us! I think it was about 3,500 square feet, including the basement, which had a huge old coal burner in it.

For about the next twenty years, I traveled and held meetings in convention centers and hotels all around the country, and we went up to maybe 120 radio stations. We were building our whole ministry on radio, traveling and ministering, and putting out tapes.

We ended up using almost every inch of the building in Manitou. We had it packed floor to ceiling and down every hallway with ministry materials and supplies. It got to where there was hardly enough room to squeeze through the halls. But God had bigger plans for us, and by 1992, it was time to move again.

God had more for this ministry - much more. In many ways, my ministry had only just begun.
