*God Adds His Super to Your Natural

GOD ADDS HIS SUPER TO YOUR NATURAL TO PRODUCE THE SUPERNATURAL

The Lord doesn't always speak to me at 3:30 in the morning, but when He does, I've learned to listen. This time it was only a few words: "God adds His super to your natural to produce the supernatural." The longer I lay there thinking about it, the more I realized I needed to write it down.

So I wrote a little booklet about this because too many Christians misunderstand how God works. They believe God moves independently of them, and they sit on the sidelines waiting for a miracle to fall from heaven. But that's not what the Bible teaches.

The Biggest Lie in the Church Today

I've always said this, and I'll say it again: the worst doctrine in the body of Christ is the sovereignty of God doctrine—at least the way many people define it. The Bible says God is almighty, first in rank and authority. But some have twisted that to mean God works without us and that nothing is required from us. That's simply not true.

In 2 Peter 3:9, it says, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." God wants everyone to be saved—but He won't force us. He doesn't force us to walk in joy, peace, or righteousness. That's our choice. That's our responsibility.

James 4:1–2 makes this crystal clear: "From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not."

It's not God who's letting sickness, poverty, or despair happen—it's us when we fail to step into the authority He's given us.

That's huge. But most Christians don't see it this way, and they just wait for God to act alone. But Jesus already gave us authority. Matthew 10:1 and 8 says: "And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease. . . . Freely ye have received, freely give."

We have a part to play. If we don't act, the supernatural power of God cannot flow through us.

The Miracle That Started with a Fishing Trip

There's a great story that illustrates this in Matthew 17:24–27. It's about Peter and the coin in the fish's mouth. Jesus could have provided the money directly, but He didn't. He told Peter to cast the hook. That was the natural action required. The fish swallowing the coin—that was supernatural. God had already lined everything up, but if Peter hadn't thrown the hook, nothing would have happened. God's provision was waiting, but Peter had to act.

This principle is everywhere in Scripture. God doesn't just hand us money or blessings out of thin air. Deuteronomy 8:18 says: "But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant." God gives us the power, the ability, and the anointing to act. He doesn't create money. He doesn't fix the lottery. He equips us to step into what He's already made available.

A Million-Dollar Idea Stirring in a Pot

Let me share a real-life example. Decades ago, a woman in one of the Bible studies I held was struggling financially. She had a family, children to feed, and bills piling up. She was cooking clay in her kitchen for her kids to play with because she wanted a safe, non-toxic alternative to the store-bought stuff. And while she stirred that clay, she prayed, "God, what can I do? What can I do in the natural for You to put Your super on it so I could see Your supernatural provision?"

And right there, God answered her and gave her an idea: make the clay in different colors, shape it into small cylinders, put six cylinders in a bag, and sell them at fairs. She obeyed. She acted in the natural. And within a year or two, her small operation grew into a thriving business with over eighty employees. Millions of dollars came in—not because God miraculously created money, but because He put His super on the natural actions she took.

Even in finances, it's the same. Luke 6:38 says, "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom." God doesn't rain money from heaven. He doesn't just place it in your bank account. He sets in motion opportunities and people to bless you, but you must act. Apply for that job, meet that person, start that business, send that message, or offer that help. That's the natural action God wants to multiply with His supernatural power.

Miracles Don't Fall—They Flow

And let's not forget healing, relationships, or any area of life where you are waiting on God. First Peter 2:24 says, "By whose stripes ye were healed." God has already made provision. Matthew 10:8 says the same: "Heal the sick . . . : freely ye have received, freely give." But if you don't step out in faith, nothing flows.

It's a partnership. God sets up the supernatural, but He flows through our obedience. He blesses what we put our hands to. Psalm 138:2 says that He has magnified His Word above all His name. God's Word is the promise. It's the foundation and the guarantee. But we have to act to see it fulfilled.

I'd love for you to get my new teaching, God Adds His Super to Your Natural to Produce the Supernatural. It explores this principle through Scripture and real-life examples, and I believe it'll be a real blessing to you. It's available in multiple formats: a free booklet, or on CD, DVD, or USB. You can order it at awme.net/supernatural, by calling our UK Helpline: +44(0) 1922 473300, or by completing and returning the response form. Take the step in the natural—let God add His super and watch the supernatural unfold.

We love you,

Andrew and Jamie

THROUGH THE BIBLE WITH ANDREW WOMMACK

Have you ever wished you had a trusted Bible mentor to walk you verse-by-verse through Scripture, explain the deeper meaning, and help you apply it to your daily life? Andrew Wommack has a brand-new show in the works, Through the Bible with Andrew Wommack, that will make that wish a reality!

In this highly anticipated show, Andrew will take you on a personal journey through Scripture, guided by his decades of study and the notes he's compiled in his Living Commentary. From Genesis to Revelation, each verse will come alive, deepening your understanding of the Word and making Bible study both clear and practical.

I've been writing these notes for over forty years. And I figured out that I've spent well over forty thousand hours studying the Word over the past fifty-seven years.

REDEEMING THE TIME

Did you know that time is either working for you or against you?

Time never stops. It marches forward moment by moment, day by day. But here's the real question: What is time doing in your life? And maybe even more important—what are you doing with the time God has given you?

See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

Ephesians 5:15–16, New King James Version

Time is a gift from God—a powerful resource meant to bring forth His will, His blessings, and His abundance in your life. But if you're not redeeming the time, it's being stolen, wasted, or neutralized. And the enemy would love nothing more than for your time to slip away, unused and unproductive.

Picture it this way: Imagine you have a watermelon seed. That seed is packed with potential. Inside it is an entire harvest of watermelons—but only if it's placed in the right conditions. The seed needs soil, water, sunlight . . . and time.

In the same way, the Word of God is a seed that can be sown in your heart. It carries an assignment, a purpose, a destiny, and the power to multiply blessings in your life. But it also needs the right environment to grow: the soil of faith, the watering of the Word, the light of fellowship, and the atmosphere of prayer.

But what if you leave that watermelon seed sitting on the kitchen counter? Nothing happens. It still has potential, but time isn't working for you—it's just slipping away. But once you plant the seed, time goes to work on your behalf. The seed starts growing. Multiplication begins.

Every promise of God is like that seed. Isaiah 55:11 tells us that His Word won't return void—it will prosper where He sends it. But if His promises remain just ideas in your mind or words on the pages of your Bible, their potential is wasted. Time keeps passing, but nothing grows.

So how do you make sure that time is serving you instead of just passing you by?

Start sowing.

Sow the Word into your heart.

Sow love, joy, forgiveness, patience, and peace.

Serve someone. Write that encouraging email. Send that uplifting text. Volunteer. Give. Plant seeds today.

Because when you sow, time begins to work for you. That's how you redeem it. ♦
