Walking in the Power of God

What would happen if you truly believed God wants the best for you—not someday in heaven, but right now? Too many believers settle for a life far below what God intended. We've been told miracles and healing are rare and that supernatural power is of the devil. But that's a lie. God wants you well. God wants His power to flow through your life. And once you really understand this, it will change your life—your health, your joy, your relationships, your whole walk with God.

God's Power Lives Inside You

Let me start with a truth that's often overlooked. The Bible says plainly in Romans 8:9, "Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his."

This means once you are born again, you have the same resurrection power that raised Jesus from the dead living on the inside of you (Eph. 1:19–20). So, if that's true, why aren't we seeing more Christians walking in supernatural healing, freedom, and power? The answer is not that God is withholding—it's that we have not fully stepped into what we've already been given.

I know this from experience. I've seen my son raised from the dead. I've seen Charis Bible College students in Uganda, Costa Rica, Ecuador, and elsewhere raise people from the dead. These things are proof that God's power still works today and is available to every believer.

Healing Is God's Will

Sad to say, Christians are often told healing is not for everyone, or that it's only a spiritual reward for some, or a gift from God we just have to hope for. That is simply not what the Bible says. Acts 10:38 tells us that Jesus "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him." Jesus never turned anyone away. If God wanted to heal all the people through Jesus then, He still wants to heal all today.

Yet many believers think healing is something "out there," somewhere in the atmosphere, and that we have to somehow or another beg God to send it down. I used to believe that too. I remember a time when I thought there were demonic powers that had to be overcome just to get our prayers to God. But that is not the reality for a born-again believer. God lives inside you. You don't need to pray for Him to come down—He's already in your spirit.

Hebrews 13:5 says He'll never leave us nor forsake us. What a promise!

Eternal Life Begins Now

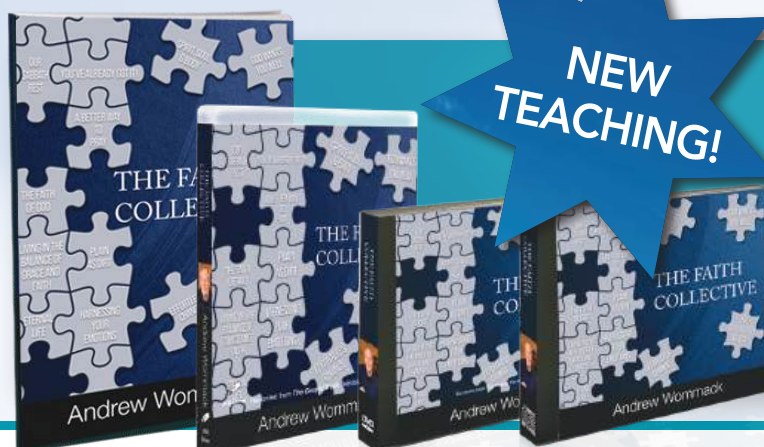

Many people think salvation is just about forgiveness and going to heaven. And yes, that is an awesome part of it—but it's only one part. Eternal life is more than endless years in eternity; it's knowing God intimately right now, today.

John 17:3 says, "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." Eternal life is relationship. It's intimacy. It's walking with God, hearing Him, speaking with Him, seeing His power manifest through you.

If all you do is pray for forgiveness, then you're missing the real purpose of salvation. God didn't just want to remove a barrier of sin so we could avoid hell. He wanted a relationship with you. And part of that relationship is seeing His life flow through you in supernatural ways—healing, deliverance, restoration, miracles, and more.

The Authority You Already Have

Matthew 10:1 says that Jesus "gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease." Then He told them in verse 8, "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give."

Healing isn't up to God alone—you already carry His power. I think most Christians aren't seeing miracles today because they either don't believe or don't understand what's already been provided in Christ.

Stop Settling for a Substandard Life

The New Testament church saw miracles daily. People would break through roofs to get someone to Jesus because His power was evident. Today, we have padded pews, air conditioning, and all sorts of comforts—but people aren't coming because there is no manifestation of God's power.

Jesus said in John 14:12, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." The works of Jesus are meant to be done by us today—not just in heaven, not just in some idealized version of the church, but here on earth.

But I'd estimate that the majority of Christians don't even believe in the miraculous today—simply because it's convenient not to. They don't have to pray, they don't have to study the Word, and they can live just as carnally as someone who doesn't know the Lord. If they say God doesn't do miracles, then when someone gets sick or struggles, they can just let it happen—because their doctrine says that it's God's will. That's a cop-out. It's a chicken way to live.

You might think I'm weird, but I think you're weird if you aren't living like the Spirit of God is alive within you. You've been given everything—healing, provision, victory over sin, peace that passes understanding. To act like it's not real, or to live as if it's not available, is to deny the very power of God. He didn't save you to scrape by—He saved you to walk in resurrection life every single day. These truths are foundational, but I've only touched the surface here. In my full teaching, The Faith Collective, I break each one down so you can understand who you are in Christ and what He's already placed inside you.

This month, we're offering The Faith Collective booklet as a FREE gift. You can also order the full teaching on CD, DVD, or USB. TRANSFORMED OR CONFORMED—IT'S YOUR CHOICE

Do you ever feel like your walk with God isn't producing the life or results you long for? Many believers wrestle with this feeling—but here's the good news: God never asks us to settle for ordinary. He calls each of us to a life of power, purpose, and transformation. And it all begins with three essential practices:

1. Renew Your Mind

Transformation starts in the mind. Look at how Paul urged the church:

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Romans 12:2

Every time you approach God's Word, expect it to shift your perspective, challenge old habits, and give you greater understanding. Your transformation begins with the way you think.

2. Behold His Glory

Here's a truth that can change everything: whatever you fix your gaze on will shape you. Paul wrote:

But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 3:18
New King James Version

Where you place your attention matters. If your focus drifts to the chaos of the world, that's what will influence you. But if your gaze rests on God—His goodness, His Word, His glory—your soul will be gradually transformed into the image of Christ.

Daniel Amstutz is an ordained minister and the director of healing ministry at Charis Bible College. He is passionate about teaching God's Word and helping others experience healing. Daniel trains students to minister healing to the sick, emphasising the message that God desires everyone to walk in wholeness and health.

3. Receive Impartation

Transformation rarely happens alone. God often works through other believers to strengthen, equip, and encourage us. Through mentoring, prayer, and laying on of hands, He helps us grow and become vessels of blessing to others.

Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

1 Thessalonians 5:11

Take intentional steps today in these areas and watch how God uses your obedience to not only transform your own life but also the lives of those around you. ■

Sickness and Trouble Cannot Stay

A friend introduced me to Andrew Wommack Ministries eleven years ago, and I listened to every teaching because they answered all the questions I had asked the Lord. Within months, my sons were healed of every allergy! Since then, I have realised that whom the Son sets free is free indeed! Every sickness and trouble must turn and leave. I have no worries, no fears, and every day is a blessing. Many people have been blessed through me, and many have also been healed. Thank You, Jesus, and thank you, Andrew! — Frøydís Y.

Jesus Brings Peace to a Troubled Mind

For months, fear, anxiety, and overwhelming stress tormented me, and I felt as if I were on the verge of a mental breakdown. At my lowest point, I called your Helpline, and a young lady prayed for my mind with such compassion and encouragement. That evening, I attended a church event despite the enemy's whispers not to. The minister shared a word of knowledge about someone battling a cluttered mind—I unashamedly raised my hand and received my breakthrough.

Today, I'm walking in so much peace. The enemy tried to return, but I shut it down with God's Word. Thank you, Andrew, for having a 24/7 prayer line. At my breaking point, God sent me a divine connection right when I needed it. — Amanda J.

God's Word Arrives at the Perfect Time

I've been watching Barry's show, Free Indeed, on the Gospel Truth Network. What a blessing it's been! God is so awesome, and what Barry shares in each episode always comes at the perfect time for me. Thank you for this excellent broadcasting network, Andrew, and thank you to all the Charis Bible College and AWM ministers and teachers. It thrills me to see how God is flooding the world with His Word and reaching hearts like mine through His gospel of grace.— Larah W.

FESTIVAL OF NATIONS: EXPERIENCE GOD'S HEART FOR THE WORLD

What happens when believers from every corner of the globe come together to celebrate God's work in the nations? The air fills with praise in multiple languages, stories of remarkable transformation unfold, and hearts unite in worship of the one true God who loves every tribe and tongue.

Last March, over a thousand people gathered for the Festival of Nations—an extraordinary day highlighting the global impact of Andrew Wommack Ministries and Charis Bible College.

Worship filled The Auditorium in English, Swahili, Spanish, Norwegian, German, Swedish, French, Japanese, and Hebrew. Different languages—one Spirit. In that joyful blend of voices, the atmosphere felt like a glimpse of heaven.

During the celebration, Andrew and Jamie Wommack, along with Mike and Carrie Pickett, welcomed our international directors to the stage. They described how God is moving in people's lives across the world—and the stories they shared were truly miraculous.

Here are just a few examples:

- From the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) — A woman taking the Discipleship Evangelism course was set free from condemnation through the lessons on salvation and righteousness by grace. Filled with faith, she laid hands on her eighteen-year-old daughter—mute since birth—and the young woman spoke her first word: "Mama."
- From Indonesia — A couple enrolled at Charis Jakarta in 2021 with the help of sponsorship support. To make ends meet, they sold personal items—including their wedding rings. In 2022, Mike and Carrie Pickett ministered to the students via Zoom, praying specifically for their finances. Afterward, the couple felt led by the Holy Spirit to give everything in their bank account to the ministry as a donation. Three years later, in 2025, they called to share the remarkable news: they had purchased a home worth $250,000.
- From Canada — A Third-Year Charis student woke in the night with a word from the Lord to pray for someone at school dealing with a stomach issue. The next day, he asked around and found a fellow Third-Year student who was battling stomach cancer. He prayed and released the healing power of God. Later, the student returned with two x-rays—one showing the cancer, and the other showing complete healing.

These testimonies represent only a small fraction of the miracles God is performing through this ministry worldwide—each one a testament to His awesome love and power.

Come join us at this year's Festival of Nations on March 20th. Experience powerful testimonies, multilingual worship, and delicious cuisine from various cultures—and see firsthand how God is reaching the nations and generations. ■

Jeff and Autumn—Evangelism Made Easy

After pioneering the Third-Year Charis Media School in 2011—the foundation for what is now the Film and Production School—Jeff and Autumn felt God calling them into something new. When they were reminded of a prophetic word spoken over them by Andrew Wommack during their 2009 ordination, it sparked a bold step of faith. That moment became the catalyst for fully embracing the evangelistic call on their lives. Watch how they courageously answered that call at awmi.net/JeffAutumn.

Kami—"It Was a Battle to Even Want to Live"

After leaving the mission field due to severe, chronic pain, Kami became wheelchair-bound. It wasn't until she got hold of the booklet An Introduction to God Wants You Well and Niki Ochenski's testimony that her hope and faith began to rise. Watch her full story of healing and restoration at awmi.net/kami.

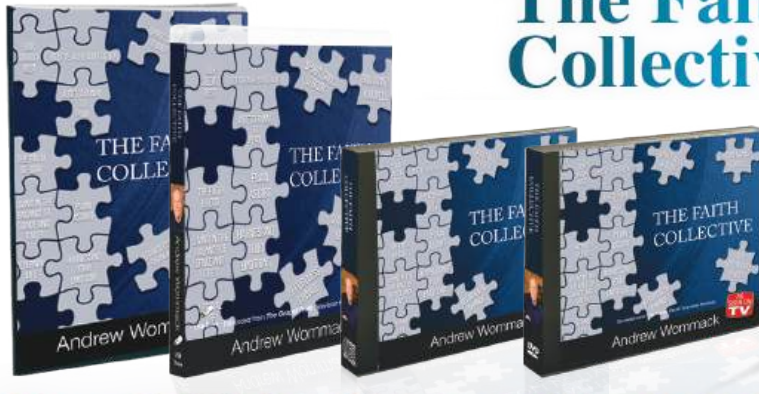

James—The Neurosurgeon Asked, "Have You Been Talking to God?"

Unemployed and living on food stamps, James felt powerless as tragedy struck his family one loss at a time. When it appeared that his mother's life might be at stake next, he turned to the truths he learned from Andrew's teachings and stood in his God-given authority in Christ. Through faith, he saw her completely healed. Watch his full story of hope, faith, and transformation at awmi.net/james.

The Faith Collective

Your faith isn't a puzzle—let God reveal the whole picture.

The Bible says resurrection power resides in every believer, yet too many Christians live frustrated, weak, and powerless—quietly accepting sickness, setbacks, and unanswered prayers as if they were normal.

The Faith Collective brings together some of Andrew Wommack's most foundational teachings so you can fully understand your authority in Christ and start walking in healing, miracles, and victory today.
